FRED CLEVINGER HELD FOR UNLAWFUL TRANSPORTATION

Charge Preferred Following Accident
Friday Night And Finding of Jug
of Corn Whiskey

HIDDEN IN A HEDGE NEARBY

Clevenger Preparing to Board Traction Car For Connersville This Morning When Arrested

IS PREPARED TO GIVE BOND

Now Faces Two Sentences, One For Violation of Liquor Laws And The Other For Perjury

Fred Clevenger, age 58, is in the hands of the law again, and is now facing a charge of unlawfully transporting liquor, following an accident Friday night when his automobile crashed into a curb in East Sixth street, and which resulted in finding of a five gallon jug of corn whiskey, concealed in the hedge across the street.

The defendant was arrested this morning shortly before ten o'clock by Police Chief Blackburn, as he was preparing to board a traction car for Connersville at the traction station.

He was being held on the charge in the circuit court and was prepared to give bond upon the arrival of Judge Sparks, who was in Connersville at the time on legal business.

The defendant is the same person, who now faces two sentences, on which appeals to the higher court are pending, one case being for the violation of the liquor law, and the other on a penitentiary charge of perjury.

According to Police Chief Blackburn, the officer was enroute to his home last night at six o'clock, and he was informed that an accident had happened near the Glenn E. Moore greenhouse in East Sixth street.

Witnesses told the police officer that they saw the defendant hide the jug across the street under a hedge, and they also told the officer, according to his version of the affair, that they saw the defendant run from the car, carrying another package with him.

The machine, which for some reason, struck the curbstone, breaking down a wheel, was put out of business. The automobile was ordered held by the sheriff this morning.

The police officer found the jug and took possession of it. The defendant was not found last night, and his arrest was deferred until this morning.

The court records show that Clevenger was arrested November 8, 1922 on a charge of unlawfully selling liquor and on January 3, when he was tried before Judge Freeman Miller and a jury, he was found guilty, and fined $400 and given a five months sentence at the state farm. An appeal in this case is pending.

The court records show further, that as a result of testimony of Blaine Britch, at the liquor trial, Clevenger was again arrested December 9, 1922 on a charge of subornation of perjury, and this case was tried before Judge Fred Gause on May 24, which resulted in a fine of $100 and a sentence of from 2 to 21 years at the state prison.

The defendant also appealed this case to the Indiana Supreme court, and a decision is pending.

ROSS GUFFIN WELLMAN IS DEAD AT AGE OF 61

Well Known Rush County Stock Buyer Succumbs To Anemia After Illness Of Several Months

FUNERAL MONDAY AT 10 A. M.

Ross Guffin Wellman, age sixty-one years, died Friday afternoon at the home of his sister, Mrs. J. T. Downey, 222 West First street, of anemia, after a prolonged illness of almost a year's duration.

In an effort to prolong his life, Mr. Wellman submitted to an operation the latter part of last August, but during the last several weeks his condition had been gradually growing worse and relatives and friends had given up hope of his recovery.

Mr. Wellman was born and reared in Rush county and lived here all of his life. He was sixty-one years of age last September. The deceased was engaged in the stock-buying business practically all of his life, and during recent years had acted as agent for hog feeds.

Mr. Wellman was a member of the Methodist church and is survived by three sisters and one brother—Mrs. Downey and Mrs. D. C. Buell, living east of Rushville; Mrs. John Morris of Greenfield, and Aaron Wellman of this city.

The funeral services will be held at the Downey home Monday morning at ten o'clock and burial will take place in East Hill cemetery.

HALF DOZEN SUSPECTS DETAINED IN ROBBERY

Indianapolis Police on Trail of Hold-up Men Who Robbed Two Banks of Large Sum

ROBBERIES FEW HOURS APART

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 24—A half dozen suspects were detained for questioning while ten squads of police combed the city for other suspicious characters here following the latest outbreak of bank banditry in Indianapolis.

Two daylight bank robberies, carefully planned and executed, within three hours of each other sent every available policeman hunting through alleys, side streets and garages for suspects.

The first robbery netted $1,095 shortly after noon yesterday when three men entered the Central Avenue State Bank and told the assistant cashier to "stick 'em up."

Just before closing time three men believed, to be the same bandits, held up the Tuxedo state bank and took $8,700.

The bandits got $25,000 in non-negotiable securities at the Central Avenue bank which, according to bank officials, will be worthless to them.

CLEAR UP BANK HOLDUP

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 24—With the arrest of Gobel Head of Bicknell in Detroit, the two holdups of state bank at Edwardsport have been practically cleared up, Harry Webster, superintendent of the Indiana Bankers' Protective Association, declared today. Head was arrested late yesterday. He is charged that he planned the two robberies.

SHIP OF STATE IS RUDDERLESS

Wallows in Stormy Sea in Germany as President Tries to Find Workable Combination

COUP D'ETAT FAILS TO SHOW

Herr Kardorff Invited to Form New Cabinet Following Resignation of Stresemann

London, Nov. 24.—President Ebert has invited Herr Kardorff to form a new cabinet, a Central News Dispatch from Berlin said today.

Mayence, Nov. 24.—The German separatist was proclaimed last night at Ludwigshafen, dispatches said today, and the city hall, postoffice and prefecture occupied without resistance from citizens loyal to the Reich. More than 10,000 unemployed in the Ludwigshafen district joined the separatists.

By CARL D. GROAT
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Berlin, Nov. 24.—The German ship of state wallowed rudderless in a stormy sea of politics today as President Ebert continued his deliberations with party leaders in the hope that somehow he would be able to find a workable combination for support of a cabinet.

The expected coup d'etat last night, following resignation of the government of Chancellor Gustav Stresemann, did not materialize.

It is not believed the new cabinet head would be announced before Monday and that the government would be entrusted to a right wing leader at that time.

Candidates for the chancellorship included Dr. Johannes von Hieber, state president at Wurttemberg, democratic party, and Dr. Heinrich Albert, remembered for his exploits in the United States, where he was attached to the German embassy during the early years of the war.

It was anticipated that General VanZeek would retain his post as national director, possibly with stronger power.

Stresemann's resignation late yesterday came after he had failed to retain support for his coalition cabinet in the face of strong attacks, principally by socialists.

The chancellor demanded a "show down" on his policies and a vote of confidence followed. The vote was 230 to 155.

ONE LITTLE GIRL KNOWS TIME FOR SANTA IS NEAR

Although indications of Santa Claus' coming are lacking, because cold weather has not come for the winter and there has been no snow, there is one little girl in Rushville who knows that the time is approaching.

She has written a letter to Kris Kringle, in care of the Daily Republican, making a pathetic appeal for some of the things that more fortunate little girls have, and she also asks for a few things for her brothers and sisters.

This is the reason why the Daily Republican Christmas fund is conducted every year—and will be again this year. There are plenty of little folks who have no hope of a happy Christmas without a Daily Republican Santa Claus. Further announcements regarding the fund will be announced within a few days.

SEALS WORKERS HERE TODAY

Are Entertained At Luncheon At The Social Club At 12:30

Christmas Seals chairman and other workers were to be entertained at a luncheon today at 12:30 o'clock at the Social club, which was to be the signal for the opening of the annual Seal campaign in Rush county. No speakers from outside of the county were on the toast list, all of the brief talks confined to local leaders in the campaign.

The Rushville Woman's Council and the Psi Iota Xi sorority are sponsoring the luncheon because the Woman's Council has general supervision over the Seal sale and the sorority is in direct charge. Miss Helen Frazee will act as chairman this year.

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH READY

Radiators Installed And Heating Plant Is Ready For Use

The radiators for heating St. Paul's Methodist church have been received and installed. Every part of the church and Sunday school rooms can now be warmed perfectly.

"After nearly two months of exile the congregation will return home on Sunday morning," said the Rev. H. W. Hargett, pastor of the church, this morning. "They expect to enter into His gates with thanksgiving and into His courts with praise and to make the House of the Lord a house of helpfulness and of happiness."

CHARLES LANDIS SUCCUMBS

Former Rushville Business Man to be Buried Here Sunday

Charles Landis, age about 65 years, formerly a Rushville business man, died at his home in Lagrange, Illinois, near Chicago, Friday afternoon, and the body will arrive here Sunday afternoon at 3:26 o'clock over the C. I. & W. railroad and be taken directly to East Hill for short funeral services in the chapel, in charge of the Rev. Gibson Wilson. The funeral will not be private.

Mr. Landis had been ill for many months with cancer of the stomach and his death was not unexpected. He was in the jewelry business here with his father at one time, but left Rushville a number of years ago.

The deceased is survived by the widow, who was a sister of the late Nannie Helm. He was an uncle by marriage of George Helm and Miss Bertha Helm of this city and also an uncle of Mrs. Jannetta Carr.

HODGES BRANCH CASE UP AGAIN

Will Be Reopened Following Order of Judge Sparks For Repudiation of Notice

OTHER ATTEMPTS FAILURES

Jury Finds Floyd Bryant Guilty Of Grand Larceny Charge--To be Sentenced Friday

The Hodges branch case is to be re-opened in the circuit court, following an order of Judge Sparks who has ordered the republication of the notice to the persons affected by the improvement, and the date of December 19 has been put as the day for receiving the returns on the publication.

The law suit, which originated in the city council a long time ago, in an effort to enclose the Hodges branch in a concrete sewer, has had a hard fight. It has been thrown out of court several times on technicalities, and another attempt is now being made to push the case in court, in order that the city will have the power to assess property damages to the land outside of the city, and which is affected by the watershed.

The jury which sat in the case of the State against Floyd Bryant, Carthage resident, returned a verdict of guilty late Friday, on the charge of grand larceny. The defendant was permitted to go on bond, and ordered to report next Friday, when the court will pass final sentence.

He was found guilty by the jury of stealing automobile tires last June, from a garage in Carthage.

Several court matters this morning were set aside as the court had business in Connersville.

Among the new cases is a complaint for damages filed by John F. McKee of the Little Flatrock neighborhood, against F. W. Gurley, a resident of Cincinnati. The complaint is a demand for $300 damages, following an automobile accident on the evening of November 2, on the New Salem road.

The plaintiff alleges that the defendant operated his automobile carelessly, and caused a collision, which resulted in McKee's machine being damaged to the alleged extent of $300.

Mary I. Doyle has filed a petition in court asking that her divorce be continued on Page Six

UNION SERVICES AT NIGHT

Will Not Be Held At Customary Time On Thanksgiving Day

Union Thanksgiving services will be held as usual in Rushville this year, but the services will be in the evening, instead of the morning, as has been the custom for the past several years.

Churches will join in the services at the Main Christian church Thursday night at 7:30 o'clock, and the Rev. E. G. McKibben, pastor of the First United Presbyterian church, will deliver the sermon.

A special Thanksgiving program will be arranged, it is assured, including some special music.

ROLL CALL SO FAR DISAPPOINTMENT

Response To Appeal For Renewal of Red Cross Memberships is Not Very Great

NO PERSONAL SOLICITATION

Does Not Excuse Failure To Subscribe, Nor Does It Relieve Anyone of Obligation

Robert E. Mansfield, acting chairman of the Rush county chapter of the American Red Cross, gave out today the following statement concerning the annual roll call:

When the executive committee of the Rush County Chapter announced the annual roll call for memberships for this year, from Armistice day, November 11, to November 29, it was thought that the simple announcement would be sufficient to insure the renewal of a large number of one dollar subscriptions, without personal solicitation. So far the result has been disappointing, and the indifference shown by the citizens of the county, generally would indicate that public interest in this great humanitarian organization ceased with the passing of the tragedy of war.

Although no citizen needs to be convinced of the wonderful work the Red Cross is doing, it is probably true that many usually think of this organization in connection with the more spectacular phases of its service to the unfortunate. Its numerous workers sped on their errands of mercy on many battle fields and in distant corners which had felt the ravages of war. The rare efficiency which permits mobilization of its resources to meet almost any prompt relief provided for the victims of the Japanese earthquake and in the success of its appeal to the nation for funds which its own treasury could not provide. The Red Cross doctor and nurse have ever been ready to relieve suffering when disasters of tornado and flood were visited upon the nation.

"The entire organization is based on the idea of service, and it is because of the unusual efficiency with which this service is dispensed that the nation, in fact the whole world, honors the symbol of the Red Cross."

Procrastination is a habit indulged in by many good people. They simply delay from day to day, doing that which they intend, or think they will do.

No personal solicitations for membership in the Red Cross will be made this year. But that is no excuse for failure to subscribe, nor does it relieve anyone of the obligation to contribute one dollar to this very commendable cause.

Checks can be mailed to or subscriptions left with the chairman of the auxiliary chapter, in each of the townships, or with Miss Nora Sleeth, treasurer, recorder's office, Rushville.

The roll call continues until November 29, and it is to be hoped that this opportunity to enroll will not be permitted to pass without a more generous response than has been made since the opening of the campaign.

ADDITIONAL STATE HIGHWAY PAVEMENT OPEN TO TRAFFIC

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 24.—Additional pavement in this year's construction program is now open to traffic, removal of a few detours where construction was in progress, and establishment of other detours where construction will continue until building operations must close because of winter weather severity, are the principal changes in state road conditions for the week of November 25-December 1, John D. Williams, state highway director, announces in the commission's traffic bulletin issued today.

He points out that five miles of new pavement is now open on State Road 5 between Greenville and New Albany, and cautions the public to drive carefully past workmen between Greenville and Palmyra. State Road 15 is to be closed next week from point 3-miles south of Knox to 2-miles south of Knox, and at the north edge of Laporte to permit construction.

With approximately 160-miles of pavement completed this year, and confronted with the task of building about 400-miles next year, various departments of the state roads body must exert every effort to get the 1924 program under way. Mr. Williams says. That state road building, maintenance of non-rigid types, and the work of making all state-controlled roads all-season highways is appreciated by the motoring public, is attested by numerous letters reaching the commission from individuals who use the road constantly. "The best investment Indiana ever made," writes a northern Indiana business man whose products go to all parts of the state via motor trucks. A farmer and fruit raiser of southern Indiana, far from a railroad, who now has new markets because of state roads in his neighborhood, claims "they mean future prosperity and create an entirely new era for me."

Conditions of state roads are set forth in the bulletin as follows:

No. 1—Construction from Carmel to 9-miles south of Kokomo with local traffic using sections of completed pavement. Thru traffic advised to avoid construction and if going north from Indianapolis, take No. 15. Detour from Lakeville to South Bend on hard surface road 3-miles east, thence on pavement north to city. ORGANIZATION TO BE NATION-WIDE

Harding Memorial Association, Recently Incorporated, Has Opened Headquarters in Washington

TO OBSERVE HARDING WEEK

To Commemorate Life of Mr. Harding as President And Citizen Week of December 9-16

Washington, Nov. 24—The Harding Memorial Association, recently incorporated under the laws of Ohio for the purpose of providing a suitable depository for the remains of the late President and to perpetuate his homestead at Marion, Ohio, as a shrine for housing the mementos of his long public service, has opened National Headquarters at 1414 F. Street, N. W., and is perfecting a nation-wide organization for carrying out its plan.

Announcement was made today that Harding Memorial Week will be observed throughout the country from December 9th to 16th. During this period exercises and services of many kinds will be held commemorative of Mr. Harding's life as President and citizen. The children are to have a special chance to participate because of the place they held in the late President's affection. During this memorial week those who so desire will have opportunity to become associate members of the Association.

Treasury Andrew W. Mellon, Secretary of War John W. Weeks, Attorney General Harry M. Daugherty, Postmaster General Harry S. New, Secretary of the Navy Edwin Denby, Secretary of the Interior Hubert Work, Secretary of Agriculture Henry C. Wallace, Secretary of Commerce Herbert Hoover, Secretary of Labor James J. Davis, Governor of the Federal Reserve Board D. R. Crissinger, Senator Joseph S. Frelinghuysen, Gen. Charles E. Sawyer, Gen. Charles G. Dawes, E. B. McLean, John Barton Payne, Fred W. Upham, John Hays Hammond, George B. Christian, Jr., Hoke Donithen and J. F. Prendergast.

Senator Frelinghuysen is acting president of the Association; John Hays Hammond, first vice-president; John Barton Payne, second vice-president; George B. Christian, Jr., secretary; and Secretary Mellon, treasurer.

The Association has in mind a modest but appropriate memorial for the late President in his home town of Marion. The exact site is to be selected by a committee which will include Mrs. Harding. Sufficient funds will be provided as an endowment for its perpetual care and upkeep.

A second form of the memorial will be the permanent endowment of the Harding home on Mt. Vernon Avenue, Marion, the front porch of which became internationally famous in the campaign that preceded Mr. Harding's election to the presidency in 1920. Fully one-quarter of a million people visited there during that period and since his death in San Francisco on August 2nd, there have been approximately thirty thousand visitors.

The popular interest in the house convinced the Association's Directors that it was the Harding shrine of America and should become part of the memorial. It will probably be necessary to erect on the property a small fireproof structure to house the vast number of Harding mementos that have been assembled since his death.

The home, it is believed, will continue the objective of pilgrimages for those to whom Mr. Harding's kindness and human sympathy so greatly appealed.

The executive committee also contemplates the establishment of a Chair of Diplomacy and Functions of Government in some leading university.

This was one of the cherished ideals of the late President. He often spoke to intimate friends of the need of special training for our representatives in foreign countries.

Shortly before his death, in reviewing the achievements of his administration, President Harding said nothing had given him more satisfaction than the coordination and greater efficiency which he had been able to bring about in the various government departments. It is proposed to include special instruction for executives of the Government in the Chair of Diplomacy and Functions of Government.

The plan for associate members which has been approved by the executive committee, would automatically make every person who contributed to the Harding Memorial fund a member. Certificates of membership are now being prepared. They will be handsomely engraved, bear the name of the donor and will be suitable for framing. Certificates are issued to those who helped build memorials to President McKinley and

Garfield are now hanging on walls of many homes throughout the country.

Although President Harding was a member of more than a score of fraternal societies, the executive committee requests that these organizations do not join the movement as organizations, whether National, State or local chapter. Membership of individual persons, and as many as possible, is the idea they have in mind. The fraternal societies, it is anticipated, will be represented 100 percent, in nearly every instance and in such cases a special certificate will probably go to these organizations.

Frankfort—Capt. D. N. Estell, instructor in the 151st Infantry, Indiana National Guard, who has been stationed in Shelbyville for fifteen months, has been ordered to Frankfort. He will instruct companies here.

Wages And Living Costs

The American working man is better off today than ever before. Measured by purchasing power wages are higher than in the months of so-called "peak" wages in 1920.

The National Industrial Conference Board reports that the wage situation reflects at present the higher level for real earnings as weighted with what these earnings will buy than at any time since the war, not excepting the peak of 1920. Cost of living in July of this year, which is the latest time when comprehensive figures are available, was 61.9% above the 1914 level. This was a decline of 20.8% from the peak of high prices in July 1920. Most noteworthy were the increases in rents throughout the country, averaging 75% higher than in 1914 and comparing with the former peak of 71% in spring of 1921.

Since March, 1922, up to July, 1923, there has been a gradual rise in the cost of living aggregating 4.7%. Of this increase 1.7% occurred since March of this year.

Average cost of clothing increased 1% since March of this year. In March, 1920, the clothing peak was 17.7% above the pre-war average. Since then they have declined 39%. There has, however, been a slight increase since March of this year, averaging .8 of 1% for the average families' clothes. The net increase in the family clothing bill is now 70% more than in 1914.

Comparing living costs with wages and hours of employment, the board finds that wages now have a higher purchasing power than in 1920, when they were supposed to be highest. During first half of 1923 increased pay and the higher level of

Tax-Exempt Securities

The next session of congress should take up the question of tax-exempt securities. The congress will take up this question if it desires to be as fair to the man of small means and the poor man as it is to men of millions.

When the government wants to borrow money it issues bonds that are exempt from taxation. These bonds usually bear around 4 percent interest.

Millionaires buy up these bonds in large quantities because they are non-taxable. They are more profitable to men of swollen incomes than higher interest bonds that are taxable, because the surtax would more than eat up the difference.

The man of modest means can not afford to buy them because the interest rate is too low, and he has no surtax that he wants to cheat.

If men of great wealth were required to buy the same bonds the poor man buys, and at the same rate of taxation plus the surtaxes, hundreds of millions of dollars would be added to the government treasury, and this in turn would justify a general reduction of taxation without inflicting an injustice upon any class.

Local Taxes Greatest Burden

We now find that the plight of the wheat farmers of the Northwest is due as much if not more to the extravagance of local governments as to any other cause. Members of the War Finance Corporation have recently returned from an inspection trip to that section, and report that, "The borrowings of state, county, and municipal agencies have been stimulated to such an extent that the aggregate interest, and therefore the aggregate taxes have increased to a point where they represent a serious burden." Those states are made up of farming communities, and that excessive tax burden is falling directly on the farmers. While the national administration has reduced taxes, and is cutting expenditures preparatory to further reductions, local governments are borrowing more money for projects that could easily wait. What the federal government is saving the taxpayers the state and county governments are taking from them, in most instances.

I claim mus'rats have got it all over men in more ways than one. Mus'rats have all got sense enough t' take t' th' tall an' uncut weeds th' instant a trapper appears in th' offing, but men 'll hang around th' trapper an' even hand him all sorts o' hints as t' what sort of trap they prefer; yes, they'll even go so far as t' help in choosin' their fav'rite bait!

Th' open season for trappin' mus'rats is only a few months in th' year, but there's no closed season for men. They're fair game for anybody, any time, any where, if he can rig up a trap. Some trappers have found out that there ain't much profit in trappin' mus'rats, th' big end o' th' money bein' in makin' th' pelts into coats, dyin' 'em th' right color an' callin' 'em 'seal'—an' o' course th' trapper don't get in on that. So a lot o' 'em have turned their talents t' trappin' men. They rig up a nice, innocent-lookin' trap, give it a respectable soundin' name, like, frinstance, 'development company,' (whatever's bein' developed bein' located either 'way off somewhere or in th' trapper's imagination); they let a lot o' boobs in on th' ground floor, hook 'em for all th' loose change they can rake an' scrape an' then they sudden like find that they got business that nobody but them knows where.

Mus'ratt trappers are used t' killin' their game b'fore they skin it—they're too tender-hearted t' treat it like th' trappers o' men do, skin it an' then turn it loose!

"Is Ben Caldwell around the court house?" came a voice over the telephone in the city treasurer's office.

He loaded himself up with fifty packages of Bull Durham and three or four slabs of chewing tobacco. Every pocket he possessed was crammed full of tobacco. He never had an opportunity to pass out the tobacco before the "zero hour" came and he went over that morning all stuffed with tobacco.

When he was shot in the hip and taken back to the first relief hospital, the attendants couldn't understand why he happened to be trying to make a tobacco supply station out of himself.

Editor's Quips Near Prophecy

Prophecy is usually supposed to be a solemn occupation, and the prophet a tall haggard man with a distant gaze and a long white beard. As a matter of fact, however, the real prophet often has a flow of facetious humor through his pen and does his predicting with a smile on his face. For instance, here is an editorial by the famous Samuel Bowles, printed in his Springfield Republican on February 15, 1877, just after Alexander Graham Bell had delivered his first lecture on the Telephone at Salem, Massachusetts.

"Prof. Bell, the accomplished teacher of Visible Speech, has been experimenting, for a year or two, on a method of making speech audible, through the telegraph, at a distance of many miles, and has had of late much success in this. On Monday night he placed one of his instruments in Salem and another in Boston and was able to transmit words and tones back and forth and even to send applause by telegraph. The instrument used is termed by him the 'telephone'—transmission being by sound and not by writing, as in the common method. Important practical results may come from this invention, which Prof. Bell and his associate, Mr. Watson, are perfecting for general use. But some of the possibilities of it are rather startling. A stump-speaker, by this method, could perhaps be heard, on the same day in all the cities and villages of the United States, so that a half-dozen campaign speakers would be enough for the new presidential election, in case neither Tilden nor Hayes is declared president before the 4th of March. Again, by an instrument skillfully arranged, all the music of a prima-donna could be distributed over the country while she was singing thus popularizing good music to an extent as yet unknown. The metropolitan newspapers, could employ persons to read their articles to subscribers in distant parts, so that the expense of printing and mailing copies would be no longer necessary. By a judicious distribution of instruments a whole parish might hear its minister preach on a stormy Sunday without leaving his study. Infinite are the uses to which the new invention could be put. Prof. Bell, the inventor, though a resident of Massachusetts, is an Englishman or Scotchman by birth and his father is the inventor of Visible Speech, by which the teaching of the deaf has been much promoted. There are some obstacles in the way of transmitting sound for long distances by the telephone, but he is confident these can be overcome, until it is made as available as the ordinary telegraph. But Thoreau had objections even to that. 'As if the main object,' said he, 'were to talk fast and not talk sensibly. We are eager to tunnel under the Atlantic, and bring the old world some weeks nearer the new; but perchance the first news that will leak through into the broad flapping American ear will be that the Princess Adelaide has the whooping cough.' And now, by Prof. Bell's invention, we can even hear her whoop. Wonderful are the achievements of science, by which the filing of a saw or the fluting of an amateur may be heard round the world like the morning drum-beat of the British army or the shot fired at Concord Bridge."

RUSHVILLE TEAMS BRING HOME WINS

Varsity And Second Fives Defeat Spiceland Academy Basket Toss-ers Friday Night

NEITHER HAS DIFFICULTY

Spiceland Threatens Few Times With Lucky Shots, But Each Time is Headed Off

The Rushville high school basketball quintets scored a couple of victories Friday night over the Spice-land Academy teams in that place, when the varsity team won out, 38 to 25, and the second team won their game, 31 to 20.

Neither team experienced much difficulty in registering victories over their opponents, although each game was fast and interesting and Spice-land took spurts as frequent intervals that might have caused concern if they had kept the pace.

One of the features of the main event of the evening was the good guarding of the Rushville team, which did not allow Spiceland to work their ball near the goal and the Academy team resorted to long shots that came within a few points in the last half of tying the count.

The first half saw Rushville in the lead 17 to 10. Spiceland drew the first points soon after the game started when Catt, their center, dropped in a goal from the field. Mc-Namara soon after was given a chance to score one point on Catt's foul, but he missed the chance, and when Hilligoss broke through from under the basket, he tied the score with his field goal.

The teams fought back and forth over the floor during the next two minutes, and when Comella took a long shot from the back guard position, the ball looped through, giving the locals 4, and Spiceland 2. Catt, the center for Spiceland, was again responsible for evening the count, and he caged another field goal for his team.

McNamara and Snoddy scored in rapid succession for the Lions, and the locals were setting a pace that was beginning to tell on the Academy team. Coffin fouled and Snoddy made good one of the two chances at the basket, which gave Rushville 9, and Spiceland was following with 4.

Then Franklin, the back guard of the Spiceland team, broke the ice with two long shots from his position, and in less than a minute these two shots had brought his team within one point, of tying, 9 to 8.

McNamara and Snoddy soon had Rushville back in the lead again when they counted baskets. Snoddy converted one more point out of two attempts at a foul committed by Carr, and soon afterwards Carr repeated a foul, and Snoddy again made good on one of the chances, which gave Rushville 15 and Spice-land 8.

At this stage in the game Walker scored a goal, although the referee

Carthage Triumphs Over Milroy in
Fast Game, 21 to 20

Carthage triumphed over Milroy last night on the floor in Milroy, by the close count of 21 to 20. The game was close at all stages with first one team in the lead and then the other, and the final outcome was in doubt until the very last ball had a chance to sail through the air.

In the curtain raiser the Milroy seconds won from the Carthage seconds, 10 to 6, and the Milroy girls beat the Center girls, 41 to 10.

maintained that it was illegal, after he had been told that the scorer had blown his whistle for a substitution.
The rule book says that the scorer's whistle cannot stop a game, only when the ball is dead.

Catt scored for Spiceland and McNamara matched the goal for Rushville with a long shot that was in the air when the shot sounded at the end of the first half, making the score 17 to 10.

In the start of the second period,
Walker scored on a field goal, and Coffin, forward for Spiceland, found the basketball for two points. Catt fouled and McNamara added the one point chance when he made the goal, that gave Rushville 20 and the Academy 12.

Snoddy snagged a goal from the side line and the locals called time for substitutions, with Warth going in for Snoddy and Newbold for Walker. Warth registered a nice basket from the side that doubled the count on Spiceland, 24 to 12, and when Newbold tipped one in, it helped shove the game on ice further, and he soon repeated with another shot, putting Rushville at 28 and the home team trailing with 12.

The last half had progressed ten minutes, and at this stage of the game Spiceland took a running streak of luck on long shots from near the impossible position of back guard and from deep center. With baskets by these long shots, Spice-land was soon within striking distance, and was following, 28 to 23, when Rushville called time and the regular line-up went back in after a refreshing rest.

Rushville Spiceland Game Gally 2
Spiceland, however, was doomed to defeat as the Lions soon began to roll the ball through again, and they marked the score up to 38, before Spiceland had had a chance to score from their 23 point start, and before the game ended Carr for Spiceland dropped in the closing goal, that ended the contest, 38 to 25.

The line-up and summary:

Colts Win Their Game

The R. H. S. second team did not have much trouble in downing the Spiceland seconds, 31 to 20, and after the first ten minutes of play the local team settled down and soon had things in their favor.

The two teams matched goals early in the game, and each team made several good shots, and displayed fast team work. When the first half ended the Colts were on the long end of a 14 to 9 count, and in the last half, they outplayed their opponents and showed a better eye for the basket.

FAIRVIEW AT MORRISTOWN

The Fairview A. C. basket five will journey over to Morristown tonight for a game, and on Tuesday night the Greensburg Y. M. C. A. team plays at Fairview. The Greensburg team will have the same line-up that defeated the Rush county coaches Thursday night, and Fairview will put forth a big effort to down them.

HITTIN' 'EM AND MISSIN' 'EM

Well, Markin' 'em up, we did the trick last night over your old rivals of Spiceland, and we are terribly sorry but we were figuring on doing the same thing with Newcastle next Friday night.

Milroy next, gang! Don't be overconfident, they held Carthage last night to a close score, 21 to 20, and Carthage is one of the main contenders for a county berth.

SO FAR AS WE KNOW, THE COLTS ARE THE ONLY TEAM IN THE COUNTY WITH A PERFECT RECORD.

Catt, star center on the Spiceland team, is every thing that his name implies. He's a cat's ankle, we'd say.

Another Chance to Show Us Here

Spiceland was crippled last night, so they say, on account of two of their players being out of the game.
Well, Spiceland can have another chance at us, when they come here.

MISS HENLEY AND HER BAND
Besides a big gang of rooters, there were two bands on hand last night to help things along. Susie's band was there, and also the co-ed band of the academy. It is directed by Miss Henley of Carthage, and we're hoping that they bring the band along with 'em when they come to Rushville February 8.

SHELBY DROPS AGAIN

Shelbyville is lost without Hodge.
The score last night was Franklin 31

FAIRVIEW PUTS UP BATTLE

Defeats Everton Friday Night in Hot Contest, 26 to 18

The Fairview high school team played a wonderful game Friday night on their home floor, when they defeated the Everton team, 26 to 18. Everton was looked upon as the best team in the county, except Con-nersville, and the game last night put Fairview away out in front.
The first half ended 12 to 10 in favor of Everton, and Fairview exerted every effort in the last half to win.

Hackleman was the star point getter for the winners. In the curtain raiser, the Fairview girls won a close game from the Orange girls, 14 to 13, and the game was not decided until the very end.

HERE WAS A THRILLER

Connersville had tough time downing Hagerstown 29 to 28, and it required a five minute extra period.
Hagerstown was in the lead 15 to 8 at the end of the first half, but Con-nersville did what Rushville did, and came back strong in the last half.
The score was tied at 25 when the game ended, and in the five minute period, Connersville scored 4 points and Hagerstown 3.

Got His Money Back Last Night

Coach Case of Frankfort, who was fined $15 for speeding last Sunday night at Lebanon, got his money back last night, when Frankfort defeated Lebanon 53 to 7.

HIT ROCKS AGAIN

Newcastle hit the snags again.
Hartford City turned the trick, 33 to 14. Look out for the Lions next week, Newcastle.

Milroy and Carthage staged a wonderful game, and as a matter of fact, Carthage didn't expect so much trouble.

Everton, which was doped to be the best team in Fayette county, outside of Connersville, found out differently last night. Fairview showed 'em 26 to 18.

Gings hasn't even a barn to play in, and so far this season they haven't had a chance to rent a gymnasium for a game. They open Wednesday at Fairview.

Hot Fight

This shows Kid Norfolk and Battling Siki in their fight at Madison battle lasted the full 15 rounds.

Siki made his American debut and was rather roughly treated, though he made a game come-back in last round. Two thousand persons saw the fight.

All Over Indiana

Decker—A large black panther is reported terrorizing farmers' families near here. Efforts to kill the beast have proved futile. Plans are being made for a concerted move to capture the animal.

Marion—When police found William Berry in an intoxicated condition, they also found several skunk hides in his possession.

Plainfield—While fishing in the west fork of White river near here, William Miller noticed a strange animal near his boat. After a struggle, Miller landed the stranger.
It was an alligator.

Kokomo—The Kokomo Aviation corporation will rebuild its hangar and equip itself with airplanes to replace the sixteen planes and the hanger and supplies burned in a $50,000 fire recently.

Lafayette—Ruth Milburn, 3, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Milburn, miraculously escaped death when she fell from the third story window onto a concrete walk twenty-five feet below. There were bruises on her body, but no other signs of serious injury were apparent.

AUSTRIAN EXCHANGE ON DOWNWARD GRADE

Speculators in German Money, Through Austrian Banks, Seem Doomed to Lose Money

INTEREST IS REMOVED

Warsaw, Ind., Nov. 21—Speculators in foreign exchange who lost heavily in the collapse of the German mark and who have been anticipating some recourse through the medium of the Austrian kronen because of the fact that Austrian exchange has remained stationary for months, may be doomed to disappointment, letters now being received by local speculators from Vienna banks would seem to indicate.

The Austrian banks are now, for the first time following in the steps of German banks which soon after there was an indication of the forthcoming complete crash of the mark wrote American investors that interest on deposits below a certain amount would cease on a certain date.

Depositors are now receiving letters from Austrian banks, notifying them that, effective immediately, deposits under 500,000 kronen will not draw interest. Interest in the sum of 7 percent will be paid on deposits of 500,000 kronen or more, while 8 percent will be paid on time deposits of 1,000,000 or more.

The change it was said, was necessitated by the depreciation of the Austrian currency and the resultant rising working expenses of the financial institutions.

Tipton—Tipton county citizens expect to organize a unit of the Indiana Taxpayers association soon.

MRS. COFFMAN ILL SEVEN YEARS

Saved from an Operation by Lydia
E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Sidell, Ill.—"I was a nervous wreck.
I was suffering from a pain in my left side, which was almost unbearable, and I could not even let the bed clothing rest on my body at night.
I had been sick for seven years, but not so bad until the last eighteen months, and had become so rundown that I cared for nobody, and would rather have died than live. I couldn't do my work without help, and the doctors told me that an operation was all there was left. I would not consent to that, so my husband brought me a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and begged me to take it. I have taken fourteen bottles of it and I feel ten years younger.
Life is full of hope. I do all my housework and had a large garden this year.
I never will be without the Vegetable Compound in the house, and when my two little girls reach womanhood I intend to teach them to take it. I am never too busy to tell some suffering sister of my help, and you can use my name and letter to spread the good news of Lydia E. Pinkham's medicines."

Third Down! One Yard To Go!

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

A Hard Winter For Boxers

New York, Nov. 24—With Jack Dempsey and Benny Leonard packed away for the winter, big boxing will have a lean season until the next outdoor boom gets booming next summer—if it does have another boom.

It has been pointed out frequently this fall that the boxers who are passing up good purses for indoor fights this winter to get a big shot outside next summer may be making a serious mistake.

Disregarding the possibility, rather remote, that boxing might be knocked out legally, there are good reasons to believe that there will not be as many places in which to stage outdoor bouts as there were around New York last summer.

It would be no surprise to see the major leagues, in the annual winter meetings, close the doors of their ball parks to boxing. The reasons have been thoroughly covered in previous discussions.

Other reasons to believe that ball park boxing will get a smacking from another quarter were gathered recently when William J. McCormick, the new boss of the commission, told the champions and their managers that it was not at all impossible that the commission would limit the admission price to bouts in ball parks to $5 a head.

This would be a sure knock-out blow.

It is generally agreed on all sides that ball parks are anything but proper places in which to hold big championship contests.

Because timid champions are killing most of the lighter class, the lightweight and heavyweight divisions are the only ones promising any interesting activity in the near future and nothing is in prospect this winter for Dempsey or Leonard.

The heavyweight champion cannot work inside and get the cash he demands, and Leonard feels that he is took big for anything but an outdoor fight.

Leonard was booked for a fight in Tijuana the first of the year, but Jimmy Coffroth, the promoter, has been unable to get a permit from the Mexican government up to the present time and the bout seems doubtful.

Several good heavyweight bouts might be arranged among the contenders, but they all have the outdoor fever and feel that they would be making a business mistake in signing for an indoor fight.

Joe Lynch and Mickey Walker are killing interest in the bantamweight and welterweight classes by refusing to defend their titles. Lynch is losing all his friends because it is apparent that he is afraid to risk his life.

What This Buffalo Physician Has Done For Humanity

The picture which appears here of Dr. Pierce of Buffalo, N. Y., was taken in 1920. As a young man Dr. Pierce practiced medicine in Pennsylvania and was known far and wide for his great success in alleviating disease.
He early moved to Buffalo and put up in ready-to-use form, his Golden Medical Discovery, the well-known tonic for the blood. This strength-builder is made from a formula which Dr. Pierce found most effective in diseases of the blood. It contains no alcohol and is an extract of native roots with the ingredients plainly stated on the wrapper. Good red blood, vim, vigor and vitality are sure to follow if you take this Alternative Extract. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Danbesspeck entertained the members of the Country Social Club Friday evening at their home in East Ninth street, with a pitch-in supper. The supper was served cafeteria style and was enjoyed by all present. The guests spent the remainder of the evening around the card tables playing Five Hundred.

Mrs. T. W. Lytle entertained the members of the Thimble Club Friday with a one o'clock luncheon at her home in East Sixth street. The appointments for the luncheon tables were carried out beautifully and following the serving of the repast, the ladies spent the remainder of the afternoon over various kinds of needlework.

The regular meeting of the Delphian Society was held Friday afternoon with Mrs. John A. Tinsworth as leader. The class is studying Art this year and the subject for Friday was "Early Christian and Byzantine Periods." Talks were given as follows: "Symbols drawn from the Hebrews," Mrs. Tinsworth; "Symbols drawn from the Greeks and Geometry," Mrs. Fred Arbuckle; "Reasons for the use of Symbolism," Mrs. Frank Schlichte; "Constantinople in Politics and Art" and "Place and Material of Byzantine Art," Mrs. Roy Harrold; "Mosaics of the Church of St. Apollinaris," and "Faults of Byzantine Art," Mrs. Charles Fischer. The next meeting will be held Friday, December 7, and the subject for discussion will be "Painting of the Renaissance."

Guest day was observed Friday afternoon by the members of The Advance Literary Club at the home of Mrs. Manley Pearce in North Main street. The home was prettily decorated for the occasion in the club colors of lavender and gold. Beautiful bouquets of chrysanthemums, and French baskets filled with the same flowers and tied with lavender tulle, carried out the appointments in the club colors. Fifty-four guests were entertained during the afternoon.

Two entertainers from Indianapolis, Mrs. W. D. Long and Mrs. Edwards, presented a reverie entitled "On a Southern Porch," which was splendidly given. A miniature porch was constructed in the corner of the living room and was adorned with honeysuckle and corn flowers, which added to the realism of the little playlet. Mrs. Edwards took the part of a southern lady, who had returned to her former home in the South, after living in the North for several years. While sitting on the "old southern porch" she reviews in her mind her childhood days and the songs she used to sing, and while doing so Mrs. Long sings the old southern melodies and gave appropriate readings in a very charming manner. Others on the program were Miss Florin Gronier, soloist, and her accompanist, Miss Brenda Kinsinger.

As the closing feature of the afternoon's entertainment, dainty refreshments were served, the predominating color scheme being carried out in the collation.

CLINICS PROVED TO BE IMPORTANT

Amos, President of the Indiana Tuberculosis Association.

"Perhaps nothing in the whole field of anti-tuberculosis work is more important than the actual study of cases at close range," said Dr. Amos today. "While the clinic facilities of the State Association now are inadequate, they are gradually bearing much fruit in an educational way throughout the state. Wherever a clinic is held, the interest of citizens of that community is immediately centered on tuberculosis problems and from then on the introduction of the whole program of right living, which has gone far to defeat the 'White Plague' in Indiana, is made easier."

LEGION MAY LOSE SAVINGS

Columbus, Ind., Nov. 24—Fear is held by members of the American legion post at Hope that the savings of the post will be lost if the state bank there is thrown into receivership. Stockholders of the bank assert, however, that the bank will not have to go into receivership and that it will weather the financial storm brought on by a number of worthless checks which were returned to it.

Lace for Afternoon Wear

Sketched here are two frocks which show just how lovely lace may be when it goes out to afternoon tea. Black lace is the whole material of one frock made over a colored silk slip. Lace forms the yoke and pleated panels of another. Brown lace and brown silk are used for the third model. The laces are all-over patterns, Spanish or Chantilly, soft and silky in texture. They are used in all colors though black and brown are most popular.

Novelty

Playing the stock market is not unusual, but playing it from the inside of a prison most certainly is. Jesse Pomeroy, condemned for life back in 1876, is operating successfully from his cell in Massachusetts State Prison at Charleston.

SHOTS FIRED IN NIGHT

Considerable shooting of revolvers Friday night in various portions of the city was being investigated today by the police officers. The police were unable to explain the shooting. The shot rang out in different parts of the city, at almost every hour during the night and early morning, according to reports.

Washington—Fire proved a valuable aid to officers here. When a house burned down several barrels of burning mash were discovered. The operator of the place was arrested.

Greensburg—The Greensburg Methodist church will celebrate the 98th birthday of its oldest member, the Rev. James B. Lathrop. He is expected to be present at the special service.

CHAPTER III

To be continued with answer to Chapter III.

(The third chapter of Red Riding Hood will appear on this page next Wednesday.)

ANSWER TO CHAPTER II

One Summer day Little Red Riding Hood's mother placed some nice things to eat in a basket and told her daughter to take the food to her grandmother, who was sick in bed and weak. "Start now, so you can be back before nightfall," said the mother.

MOVIES

Replete With Thrills
"Texas", Franklyn Farnum's latest feature, a western comedy-drama now showing at the Mystic theatre today is a story of the railroad's invasion of the west in the early days.

The little town of Morenon had enjoyed the peaceful pursuits of a natural existence until capital decided to bridge the gap between the East and West and it so happened the survey for their railroad ran through the town. Right-of-way purchases were made wherever necessary with the exception of the O. Y. Ranch owned by Texas, and which he refused to sell. His refusal was due to the enmity between himself and Crandall, the purchasing agent for the road. This enmity was caused by Texas' winning the friendship and love of the President's daughter and by Crandall's crooked dealings to gain possession of the ranch to further his own gain.

The story is replete with thrills, mystery, comedy situations, drama, and a red-blooded, he-man climax that finishes up with a bang. The roles are superbly cast, each character being chosen for his or her fitness to the part, and Director Bertram has secured a marvelous interpretation of this virile, western story. Texas is one of the really worth-while western pictures of the year.

"Environment Well Received"
Alice Lake and Milton Sills, two accomplished players of the screen-two players who have proven their right to stardom through exceptional acting in scores of pictures, are the featured players in "Environment," a new Irving Cummings production for Principal Pictures, which was well received on its premier presentation at the Princess Theatre Friday. It is at the Princess again today.

sentation at the Princess Theatre Friday. It is at the Princess again today.

"Environment" was written by Harvey Gates, an experienced writer for the silent drama, an author thoroughly versed with his theme—that of a crook's redemption, and the picture is characterized by tense scenes, excellent acting and beautiful photography.

The story is one that holds the attention from beginning to end without resorting to impossible or false situations. This production, by Mr. Cummings, is a worthy addition to his large list of famous pictures. "Environment" is a drama of the city's underworld and the healthy atmosphere of the open country. The locale of the story is Chicago and a small community some miles distant. The action is tense, filled with suspense, offers strong conflict and sharp contacts, is rich in local color and background and moves with a vigor which will keep the spectator at strict attention throughout its unfoldment.

In addition, there is a Mack Sennett comedy, "One Cylinder Love," and novelty instrumental musical numbers by Diana and Galvin.

"Habit" at The Castle

Louis B. Mayer's screen triumph

"Habit" now showing at the Castle Theatre was well liked by those that saw it last night. It is a First National Production with Mildred Harris and a supreme supporting cast, including Ethel Terry, William Lawrence, Walter McGrade and others as well live up to the standard that First National Pictures have established. Habit has two costly features which lift it beyond the ken of the ordinary produced drama even on the lavish scale of production practiced today. The first is a railroad wreck in which two locomotives are seen in a head-on collision. The next instant they and the train that they pull are scrapped. One of the most thrilling train wrecks ever filmed. The second is the most expensive display of furs and furbelows ever shown on the screen. Throughout the whole show the two forces, "habit" and "will-power," which are impersonated by real characters on the screen, wage a continuous battle for mastery of the lives of the other characters portrayed. "Habit" is a mirror of life that reflects the lives of most of us. The Fox Comedy shown in connection is a scream from beginning to end. "The Unreal News Reel." "Sees all-knows nothing."

A Resume of Week's Activities in Schools of Various Townships, Dealing With Athletics and Scholarship

The County School Reflector

(Edited by the Students)

Carthage, Center, Gings, Glenwood, New Salem, Milroy, Moscow, Webb, Arlington, Manilla, Homer, Raleigh

CENTER SCHOOL

D. D. Ball, county agriculture agent, visited Center school Thursday forenoon and talked upon the subject of seed corn to the agriculture classes. He also gave a practical demonstration on how to score seed corn.

The Home Economics class has been making a study of cereals. The biology class is making a study of foods.

Compound interest is being studied by the commercial arithmetic class.

Tests were given this week to the freshmen and advanced algebra classes.

The following special reports have been given in the American History class: "Franklin in France," Ruth Atkins; "Lafayette in America," Russell Apple; "George Roger Clark," Merrill Reddick.

Some very interesting book reports have been given in the English classes.

The girls practiced basketball with the Raleigh girls Thursday evening. The girl's basketball team played at Milroy November 23.

HOMER SCHOOL

Our school has been observing Education Week.

On Monday our teachers held their regular meeting, discussed the teaching, and worked out a device which we think is going to improve the spelling ability of our pupils. The teacher writes the word on the board. The children look at it a short time. It is then erased and the children are asked to write it. The work is then examined by the teacher and if a mistake has been made, it is not pointed out to the children, but this process is repeated until no mistake is made. Then it is pronounced and spelled orally by the children. Its meaning is given and the word is used in a sentence.

On Tuesday morning, the Rev. Mr. Haley of Manilla gave an inspiring talk on "Moral and Physical Education" before the general assembly of the school.

PARENT, TEACHERS MEET

Tuesday evening the regular meeting of the parents and teachers was called to order at 7:30. The following motions were made and carried: That a flag should be floating in front of the school building from a flag pole, a flag should be placed in each room, the pledge be taken once a month, a Bible be placed on each teacher's desk and a portion be read from it daily.

After the business session a short program was given by the school. After the program, the main address of the evening was given by County Superintendent Farthing. The address was heartily applauded and much enjoyed by all. The purpose of education as we see it is to develop sympathetic, intelligent and active citizens in our democracy. To meet this end, the child's education includes his progressive development in every direction—physically and mentally.

For a few, we have basketball and football. For the masses, a director is needed. Cities are more efficient as a social center because they have parks, shows, Y. M. C. A.'s, etc. In rural communities the centers are the schools and churches. In most plays and lyceum courses. The church is all that is left if we do not have these in the schools.

High school students in Indiana know very little about the Bible. The moral instruction is left to the schools. If the teacher is not a moral being how can our boys and girls be expected to be pure minded? "As a man thinketh in his heart so is he."

Marjory Buckley was absent from school Monday on account of sickness.

Orpha Aumiller has been suffering from a nervous breakdown. She has given up her work teaching this year. Miss Gladys Osborne of Rushville is teaching at the present time in that room.

GLENWOOD SCHOOL

Visual instruction by use of moving pictures will be given in our school regularly beginning November 27 and continuing until the end of the term. The main reel for our first exhibit will give the life of Thomas A. Edison at the various periods of his career; also his main achievements. In addition to the meat packing industry of Kansas City will be shown in its entirety, along with a reel or two of nature study and health comedy. These films are obtained from Indiana University as a part of their extension work program.

The Domestic Science class of the Seventh and Eighth grades are progressing nicely in their work. We have served cocoa to the school several times. The large posters were made to show the composition of foods. We found the illustration in magazines and when finished they were very pretty. We have taken up the study of the sources, uses and daily requirement of the chief food constituents which are water, fats, proteins, carbohydrates, mineral matter. We are now dividing food into callories.

Agriculture as a subject in our school is assuming more and more importance. At Glenwood it is being taught in the Seventh and Eighth grades and in the high school. The basis of our work for this year is the making of note books. The note books contain questions and answer practical problems pertaining to farm life and illustrative drawings. The making of score cards has been a part of the work. The purpose of these was for testing corn. We scored the corn and found some high and some low tests. We are making considerable progress in our work.

For about three weeks we have been studying Caesar and think it is very interesting. First we reviewed the life of Caesar and since then have read 15 chapters. This week a new phase of work was introduced, namely parsing. Each day we parse from ten to twelve nouns and verbs.

ATHLETICS

Glenwood basketball's team is progressing nicely toward winning a few games this season. The game with Gings high school unluckily had to be cancelled since neither one had a gymnasium or a suitable place to play and there was none to be found. The schedule for Glenwood is almost completed but all the games are to be played away from home. So far we have Center, Everton, New Salem and Laurel booked, besides the tournaments. We played Laurel last night.

CARTHAGE SCHOOL

The first break in the ranks of the Carthage schools in several years occurred when Dorothy McCorkle, one of the foremost pupils in the Second grade, died Saturday night from the effects of burns received earlier in the day. Little Dorothy was only seven years old but had already won the hearts of her teachers, schoolmates and a host of friends by her winning ways.

Education week was observed Wednesday afternoon at the auditorium with an appropriate program. J. F. Haynes, president of the Indiana Reading Circle, gave a splendid talk to the audience which was composed of school students and interested towns people. The junior and senior high choruses rendered two selections and musical numbers were furnished by the high school orchestra. A benediction by the Rev. Mrs. Parker completed the program. The box supper and carnival given by the class of '25 at the auditorium was enjoyed by all in attendance. The class was well pleased with its financial success.

TWO GAMES WON

Regardless of Mr. Zartman's mumps, the boys teams won both of their games last week end. The first was their decisive victory over Morristown on Friday night and the second was a regular walk-away from Arlington on Saturday night. The former score was 14 to 29 and the score for the latter game was 25 to 47. In the preliminary for the Arlington game, the C. H. S. second team won from the Arlington Second in a hotly contested battle. Terhane of the locals made the winning goal a few seconds before the whistle blew, the final score being 8 to 10.

"Flank" statements made their first appearance in C. H. S. when they were issued Wednesday to those who had not made a passing grade in a subject during the past two weeks. These will prove very beneficial in that they give the failing student a fair warning before the monthly grades are issued.

The freshmen domestic science class will entertain the teachers of the Carthage school with a Thanksgiving dinner on Monday night.

GINGS SCHOOL

The biology class has been deeply interested in preparing posters to show the carbon and oxygen cycles of life. The posters were made by mounting pictures to represent the various stages of each cycle upon large sheets of card board.

The agriculture class has been making a study of maintenance of soil fertility along with their corn project. An attempt has been made to determine whether or not the present practice will maintain the fertility of the soil or whether more plant food is removed than is returned by our cropping system. The study is not complete as yet.

BASKETBALL

The basketball squad has been making noted improvement, so much so in fact that the regulars were able to shut out the second stringers the first time Monday. We have been unfortunate in securing a floor so have not been able to meet any other teams. A game with Glenwood had to be cancelled last Friday because of the breakdown of the Fairview light plant. Another trustee refused to rent his gym and Bentonville beat us to a third place. Maybe some day we can have one of our own.

Next Friday we play Orange on their floor. Custer has developed into a shifty and rapid forward while Felts is a stonewall at backguard. Consequently we feel that we have at least an even chance to bring home the bacon in spite of our handicaps of a late start and out-of-door playing. The lineup will probably be: Felts and Gordon, guards; Cortner center; Custer and Eckert, forwards; Myers, substitute. Wednesday night November 28, we will meet Fairview on their own floor.

The Algebra class has been working on division this week. They say "it seems to be fairly easy for us, thanks to the thorough mastery of the principals of addition, subtraction and multiplication."

The physiology class has begun a rather novel review in that they are making certain drawings. An explanation to accompany the drawing really summarizes concretely various phases of the work. For example, drawings of the mechanism of the heart completely review the structure and function of that organ.

ENTERTAINMENTS

Due to the fact that Tuesday was James A. Garfield's birthday, the eighth grade gave a very interesting program, relating to this birthday. He was born 78 years ago. Donald Rees gave a very thorough review of the life of Garfield; Jesse Eckert read Whitman's poem "O Captain, My Captain" and Mildred Jackson gave a reading, Nesbit's "Your Flag and My Flag." At the beginning of the program the students sang "America" and at the close they sang the "The Star Spangled Banner." The program was extremely instructive and interesting.

NEW SALEM

Miss Dorothy Ralston from Rushville visited the high school here last Friday.

Miss Hazel Hildreth, one of last year's graduate, visited the high school last Friday afternoon.

The Rushville and New Salem basketball girls played the curtain raiser game at New Salem Friday night. The game was fast and exciting in all stages. New Salem girls won out with the final score 16 to 10. Yea girls, let's go.

The basketball game here Friday night, November 16, was quite a surprise-for Orange. Three regulars were off the New Salem line-up and it was great the way those plucky little fellows played. At no time were they far ahead but they kept up the fighting spirit throughout the game. The Orange players outclassed the New Salem line-up in size but not in pep. The game ended, 15 to 11, in favor of Salem. Quite a victory for two regulars and two youngsters. Harold Wilson, the back guard, made a field goal which is a rare occurrence on this floor because of the low ceiling.

Immediately following the boys game, oyster soup was served by several of the high school girls to the New Salem boys and the opposing team. There being a great quantity of the soup left, Mr. Jinks, the coach, kindly invited the fathers and mothers of boys to partake.

Over fifty percent of the Sophomore class received A's in Caesar last month. They are progressing finely and are on the twentieth chapter.

Most of the high school pupils attended the "Birth of the Nation" at the Princess last week.

Mr. Cooper, principal, went to Bloomington Friday to the meeting of the principals there. He went with the other principals of the county schools.

NEXT GAME WITH ARLINGTON

The next basketball game here will be on November 28 when the boys will play the Arlington team and the girls will play the Milroy girls. Every one is invited to attend these games and we hope for a large crowd.

The address on education given here in the assembly room of the high school Wednesday night was well attended. John Paul Frazee, Jr., a graduate of the University of Wisconsin, was the speaker. The following program was given: song America; talk by Mr. Cooper; violin solo, Merianne Holman, accompanied by Charlotte Holman; speech by Mr. Frazee; song, "Star Spangled Banner."

Mr. Frazee brought out in his talk four main points, that should be observed in educating the child. First, it should help to start the child on the line of work for which he is best suited. Second, it should supply the child with a margin of safety. Everyone should have a large amount of reserve material that he under ordinary circumstances does not need but with which to meet emergency. Third, education should develop the body and help a child through athletics. Fourth, education should develop the morals of the child, make of him a better citizen.

MANILLA

This week being National Education Week, the Manilla school celebrated it by giving a public program Monday night. Benjamin J. Burris, state superintendent of public instruction, was the speaker of the evening and he lectured on the constitution of the United States. The girls' Glee Club furnished the music for the program.

Our basketball team has profited wonderfully from the sound defeat that Webb gave us last Friday. We noticed many weak spots in our defense work as well as our goal shooting and are rapidly overcoming these by grilling practice administered by Coach Headlee in preparation for the Greensburg game to be played here Saturday night, November 24. We confess that Webb has a very strong team. Their floor work and defense was excellent and will bear a great deal of notice throughout the season.

MOSCOW SCHOOL

SENIOR NEWS

The Seniors have completed the second publication of their paper, "The Orange Punch." It is much better than the first copy.

A few of the Seniors attended the speaking at Moscow last Tuesday night.

Some of the Seniors attended the box supper at the Gahimer school house last Thursday night.

In Physics they have been having levers. It is very easy too.

In English Emerson's essays and review of American authors have been taking up most of their time.

In Arithmetic they have been having the money of the different countries.

JUNIOR NEWS

Educational Week was observed by the school. Mr. Ball, the county agent, spoke on educational subjects at the school building on Tuesday night.

Della Callahan, former member of our class, visited school last Friday.

Several Juniors are planning to attend the box social to be given at District 3 on Thursday night. This is the only rural school in Orange township.

The class in Domestic Science enjoyed a lunch of baked beans and corn bread. During the week we also made muffins and griddle cakes which proved to be satisfactory. We will soon be making cakes.

We are doing good work in History, English, Biology and Geometry.

SOPHOMORE NEWS

The Sophomores in English are soon to take up the study of "The Lady of the Lake" by Scott. We hope we shall enjoy it as immensely as we do Dickens' "Tale of Two Cities," which we are now completing.

We are slowly but surely covering the ground where Caesar's battles were fought. Of course, we get mixed up translating it and often it sounds rather queer reading it aloud, but Caesar succeeded and so shall we.

In History we are now studying of the religious wars in France and other countries. However, we have found out there are many things of which we know nothing.

A few of the Sophomores are planning to attend the box supper given at the Gahimer school, Thursday, November 22. The girls haven't quite decided whether to bring boxes or not. But suppose when the time arrives, they will.

FRESHMAN NEWS

Another member of our class has returned this week to school again.

A few of the Freshmen attended the educational speech given by Mr. Ball.

Several expected to attend the Lyceum course which was given at the school house Friday night.

We are studying about the same line of work which we have been, only not the same thing every day. We began this week reading outside books for reports.

MILROY

The Junior class of M. H. S. presented Madam Proctor Hamilton in a program of readings and impersonations last Monday evening. Madam Hamilton who is a southern woman, a resident of Nashville, Tenn., has been making an extended tour of the middle west and has appeared in a number of the towns of Rush County. Reports from these towns are to the effect that Madam Hamilton was splendidly received by her audiences and this certainly holds good here.

The program was divided between lighter numbers in the negro dialect and a short sketch from the famous book, "Within the Law."

Miss Helen Jaehne, teacher in Rushville and formerly a teacher here furnished the musical part of the program. Miss Jaehne was accompanied at the piano by Miss Wagoner also of Rushville.

Rev. R. R. Cross, pastor of the local M. E. church, visited the school Tuesday morning. Rev. Cross read a passage of scripture and also gave a talk to the Junior and Senior High School.

The pastors of the various churches of the community have asked that the scripture be read in the school. Mr. Power, our principle is trying to comply with their wishes as near as possible.

NEW FLAG POLE ERECTED

During the week of vacation a new flag pole was erected in the school yard south east of the building.

The presence of the pole may deprive the seniors of camping on the roof during the last week of school next spring, but perhaps with the aid of a little grease they may be able to defend their flag. Time will tell.

The second series of talks on banking was given Friday morning before the Junior and Senior High schools, by Mr. C. E. Brown, cashier of the Milroy Bank. In his talk, Mr. Brown discussed the subject of "Bank Checking System."

The series is to consist of four talks. The other two will probably be arranged for the next two weeks.

Through the courtesy of the bankers in each community, similar talks are being given throughout the country to the school audiences.

Miss Reba and Margaret McIlvaine entertained at dinner Wednesday evening Mr. Lyle Power, Miss Ellendore Lampton, Mr. Coffin, Mr. Royalty, Miss Whitehorn, Mr. and Mrs. McGinnis and Mrs. Perigoe and family.

Albert Cotton, physical director, in the Rushville schools gave a very interesting talk Thursday afternoon to the Junior and Senior high school, on the subject, "Why is the Constitution Great?" Mr. Cotton's talk was appreciated greatly by the school in general.

ARLINGTON

REMEMBER

Don't forget about the Indoor Fair at the Arlington school building, Friday evening, November 30. There will be automobile shows, baby shows, a swimming match, a beauty parlor, and a vaudeville. The bridal party will draw much attention. There will be several refreshment booths where you can obtain many good things to eat. Don't forget to "Drop Inn" and get some hot chocolate and waffles before you leave. Pass this news around to everybody you see and come and have a good time.

The Seniors had been waiting rather impatiently to see their pictures which were taken two or three weeks ago. When Mr. Collyer brought them over Thursday, he was received with great enthusiasm and there was a great display of visages in the laboratory. These pictures were taken for the annual on which we have already begun work. So if you want to see the Senior and other class pictures just wait and buy a "Rambler" next spring.

COLLECTION OF SEEDS

The botany and General Science classes are having an amusing time collecting seeds for the laboratory. Mr. Goode suggested that they make a collection of seeds and preserve them as part of the laboratory equipment. Each member was given two bottles to fill and as the classes are large there will be quite an assortment of seeds.

Educational week was observed here at the request of Supt. Farthing. Mr. Goode spoke on Monday, about the influence the American Legion has had on education, and how it introduced the educational week. Mr. De Munbrun talked on patriotism and its relation to education. He emphasized the fact that patriotism is just as important in time of peace as in time of war and that there can be heroes other than those of war. Miss Harrington discussed the community spirit and applied it to our school work. Miss Perish and Mr. Hyatt talked on physical education and how important it is in every phase of life. These talks were instructive and also very interesting and if we apply them, the lessons will be beneficial.

Charge Preferred Following Accident
Friday Night And Finding of Jug
of Corn Whiskey

HIDDEN IN A HEDGE NEARBY

Clevenger Preparing to Board Traction Car For Connersville This Morning When Arrested

IS PREPARED TO GIVE BOND

Now Faces Two Sentences, One For Violation of Liquor Laws And The Other, For Perjury

Fred Clevenger, age 58, is in the hands of the law again, and is now facing a charge of unlawfully transporting liquor, following an accident Friday night when his automobile crashed into a curb in East Sixth street, and which resulted in finding of a five gallon jug of corn whiskey, concealed in the hedge across the street.

The defendant was arrested this morning shortly before ten o'clock by Police Chief Blackburn, as he was preparing to board a traction car for Connersville at the traction station.

He was being held on the charge in the circuit court and was prepared to give bond upon the arrival of Judge Sparks, who was in Connersville at the time on legal business.

The defendant is the same person, who now faces two sentences, on which appeals to the higher court are pending, one case being for the violation of the liquor law, and the other on a penitentiary charge of perjury.

According to Police Chief Blackburn, the officer was enroute to the home last night at six o'clock, and he was informed that an accident had happened near the Glenn E. Moore greenhouse in East Sixth street.

Witnesses told the police officer, that they saw the defendant hide the jug across the street under a hedge, and they also told the officer, according to his version of the affair, that they saw the defendant run from the car, carrying another package with him.

The machine, which for some reason, struck the curbstone, breaking down a wheel, was put out of business. The automobile was ordered held by the sheriff this morning.

The police officer found the jug and took possession of it. The defendant was not found last night, and his arrest was deferred until this morning.

The court records show that Clevenger was arrested November 8, 1922 on a charge of unlawfully selling liquor and on January 3, when he was tried before Judge Freeman Miller and a jury, he was found guilty, and fined $400 and given a five months sentence at the state farm. An appeal in this case is pending.

The court records show further, that as a result of testimony of Blaine Britch, at the liquor trial, Clevenger was again arrested December 9, 1922 on a charge of subornation of perjury, and this case was tried before Judge Fred Gause on May 24, which resulted in a fine of $300 and a sentence of from 2 to 21 years at the state prison.

The defendant also appealed this case to the Indiana Supreme court, and a decision is pending.

ROSS GUFFIN WELLMAN IS DEAD AT AGE OF 61

Well Known Rush County Stock Buyer Succumbs To Anemia After Illness Of Several Months

FUNERAL MONDAY AT 10 A. M.

Ross Guffin Wellman, age sixty-one years, died Friday afternoon at the home of his sister, Mrs. J. T. Downey, 222 West First street, of anemia, after a prolonged illness of almost a year's duration.

In an effort to prolong his life, Mr. Wellman submitted to an operation the latter part of last August, but during the last several weeks his condition had been gradually growing worse and relatives and friends had given up hope of his recovery.

Mr. Wellman was born and reared in Rush county and lived here all of his life. He was sixty-one years of age last September. The deceased was engaged in the stock-buying business practically all of his life, and during recent years had acted as agent for hog feeds.

Mr. Wellman was a member of the Methodist church and is survived by three sisters and one brother—Mrs. Downey and Mrs. D. C. Buell, living east of Rushville; Mrs. John Morris of Greenfield, and Aaron Wellman of this city.

The funeral services will be held at the Downey home Monday morning at ten o'clock and burial will take place in East Hill cemetery.

HALF DOZEN SUSPECTS DETAINED IN ROBBERY

Indianapolis Police on Trail of Hold-up Men Who Robbed Two Banks of Large Sum

ROBBERIES FEW HOURS APART

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 24—A half dozen suspects were detained for questioning while ten squads of police combed the city for other suspicious characters here following the latest outbreak of bank banditry in Indianapolis.

Two daylight bank robberies, carefully planned and executed, within three hours of each other sent every available policeman hunting through alleys, side streets and garages for suspects.

The first robbery netted $1,095 shortly after noon yesterday when three men entered the Central Avenue State Bank and told the assistant cashier to "stick 'em up."

Just before closing time three men believed, to be the same bandits, held up the Tuxedo state bank and took $8,700.

The bandits got $25,000 in non-negotiable securities at the Central Avenue bank which, according to bank officials, will be worthless to them.

CLEAR UP BANK HOLDUP

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 24—With the arrest of Gobel Head of Bicknell in Detroit, the two holdups of state bank at Edwardsport have been practically cleared up, Harry Webster, superintendent of the Indiana Bankers' Protective Association, declared today. Head was arrested late yesterday. It is charged that he planned the two robberies.

Wallows in Stormy Sea in Germany as President Tries to Find Workable Combination

COUP D'ETAT FAILS TO SHOW

Herr Kardorff Invited to Form New Cabinet Following Resignation of Stresemann

London, Nov. 24.—President Ebert has invited Herr Kardorff to form a new cabinet, a Central News Dispatch from Berlin said today.

Mayence, Nov. 24.—The German separatist was proclaimed last night at Ludwigshafen, dispatches said today, and the city hall, postoffice and prefecture occupied without resistance from citizens loyal to the Reich. More than 10,000 unemployed in the Ludwigshafen district joined the separatists.

By CARL D. GROAT
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Berlin, Nov. 24.—The German ship of state wallowed rudderless in a stormy sea of politics today as President Ebert continued his deliberations with party leaders in the hope that somehow he would be able to find a workable combination for support of a cabinet.

The expected coup d'etat last night, following resignation of the government of Chancellor Gustav Stresemann, did not materialize.

It is not believed the new cabinet head would be announced before Monday and that the government would be entrusted to a right wing leader at that time.

Candidates for the chancellorship included Dr. Johannes Von Hieber, state president at Wurttemberg, democratic party, and Dr. Heinrich Albert, remembered for his exploits in the United States, where he was attached to the German embassy during the early years of the war.

It was anticipated that General VanZeck would retain his post as national director, possibly with stronger power.

Stresemann's resignation late yesterday came after he had failed to retain support for his coalition cabinet in the face of strong attacks, principally by socialists.

The chancellor demanded a "show down" on his policies and a vote of misconfidence followed. The vote was 230 to 155.

ONE LITTLE GIRL KNOWS TIME FOR SANTA IS NEAR

Although indications of Santa Claus' coming are lacking, because cold weather has not come for the winter and there has been no snow, there is one little girl in Rushville who knows that the time is approaching.

She has written a letter to Kris Kringle, in care of the Daily Republican, making a pathetic appeal for some of the things that more fortunate little girls have, and she also asks for a few things for her brothers and sisters.

This is the reason why the Daily Republican Christmas fund is conducted every year—and will be again this year. There are plenty of little folks who have no hope of a happy Christmas without a Daily Republican Santa Claus. Further announcements regarding the fund will be announced within a few days.

SEALS WORKERS HERE TODAY

Are Entertained At Luncheon At The Social Club At 12:30

Christmas Seals chairman and other workers were to be entertained at a luncheon today at 12:30 o'clock at the Social club, which was to be the signal for the opening of the annual Seal campaign in Rush county. No speakers from outside of the county were on the toast list, all of the brief talks confined to local leaders in the campaign.

The Rushville Woman's Council and the Psi Iota Xo sorority are sponsoring the luncheon because the Woman's Council has general supervision over the Seal sale and the sorority is in direct charge. Miss Helen Frazee will act as chairman this year.

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH READY

Radiators Installed And Heating Plant Is Ready For Use

The radiators for heating St. Paul's Methodist church have been received and installed. Every part of the church and Sunday school rooms can now be warmed perfectly.

"After nearly two months of exile the congregation will return home on Sunday morning," said the Rev. H. W. Hargett, pastor of the church, this morning. "They expect to enter into His gates with thanksgiving and into His courts with praise and to make the House of the Lord a house of helpfulness and of happiness."

CHARLES LANDIS SUCCUMBS

Former Rushville Business Man to be Buried Here Sunday

Charles Landis, age about 65 years, formerly a Rushville business man, died at his home in Lagrange, Illinois, near Chicago, Friday afternoon, and the body will arrive here Sunday afternoon at 3:26 o'clock over the C. I. & W. railroad and be taken directly to East Hill for short funeral services in the chapel, in charge of the Rev. Gibson Wilson. The funeral will not be private.

Mr. Landis had been ill for many months with cancer of the stomach and his death was not unexpected. He was in the jewelry business here with his father at one time, but left Rushville a number of years ago.

The deceased is survived by the widow, who was a sister of the late Nannie Helm. He was an uncle by marriage of George Helm and Miss Bertha Helm of this city and also an uncle of Mrs. Jannetta Carr.

HODGES BRANCH CASE UP AGAIN

Will Be Reopened Following Order of Judge Sparks For Republication of Notice

OTHER ATTEMPTS FAILURES

Jury Finds Floyd Bryant Guilty Of Grand Larceny Charge--To be Sentenced Friday

The Hodges branch case is to be re-opened in the circuit court, following an order of Judge Sparks who has ordered the republication of the notice to the persons affected by the improvement, and the date of December 19 has been put as the day for receiving the returns on the publication.

The law suit, which originated in the city council a long time ago, in an effort to enclose the Hodges branch in a concrete sewer, has had a hard fight. It has been thrown out of court several times on technicalities, and another attempt is now being made to push the case in court, in order that the city will have the power to assess property damages to the land outside of the city, and which is affected by the watershed.

The jury which sat in the case of the State against Floyd Bryant, Carthage resident, returned a verdict of guilty late Friday, on the charge of grand larceny. The defendant was permitted to go on bond, and ordered to report next Friday, when the court will pass final sentence.

He was found guilty by the jury of stealing automobile tires last June, from a garage in Carthage.

Several court matters this morning were set aside as the court had business in Connersville.

Among the new cases is a complaint for damages filed by John F. McKee of the Little Flatrock neighborhood, against F. W. Gurley, a resident of Cincinnati. The complaint is a demand for $300 damages, following an automobile accident on the evening of November 2, on the New Salem road.

The plaintiff alleges that the defendant operated his automobile carelessly, and caused a collision, which resulted in McKee's machine being damaged to the alleged extent of $300.

Mary I. Doyle has filed a petition in court asking that her divorce be granted.

UNION SERVICES AT NIGHT

Will Not Be Held At Customary Time On Thanksgiving Day

Union Thanksgiving services will be held as usual in Rushville this year, but the services will be in the evening, instead of the morning, as has been the custom for the past several years.

Churches will join in the services at the Main Christian church Thursday night at 7:30 o'clock, and the Rev. E. G. McKibben, pastor of the First United Presbyterian church, will deliver the sermon.

A special Thanksgiving program will be arranged, it is assured, including some special music.

ROLL CALL SO FAR DISAPPOINTMENT

Response To Appeal For Renewal of Red Cross Memberships is Not Very Great

NO PERSONAL SOLICITATION

Does Not Excuse Failure To Subscribe, Nor Does It Relieve Anyone of Obligation

Robert E. Mansfield, acting chairman of the Rush county chapter of the American Red Cross, gave out today the following statement concerning the annual roll call:

When the executive committee of the Rush County Chapter announced the annual roll call for memberships for this year, from Armistice day, November 11, to November 29, it was thought that the simple announcement would be sufficient to insure the renewal of a large number of one dollar subscriptions, without personal solicitation. So far the result has been disappointing, and the indifference shown by the citizens of the county, generally would indicate that public interest in this great humanitarian organization ceased with the passing of the tragedy of war.

The following reference to the Indianapolis Chapter of the Red Cross, which is taken from a recent editorial in the Star, applies with equal force to the Rush county chapter:

Although no citizen needs to be convinced of the wonderful work the Red Cross is doing, it is probably true that many usually think of this organization in connection with the more spectacular phases of its service to the unfortunate. Its numerous workers sped on their errands of mercy on many battle fields and in distant corners which had felt the ravages of war. The rare efficiency which permits mobilization of its resources to meet almost any prompt relief provided for the victims of the Japanese earthquake and in the success of its appeal to the nation for funds which its own treasury could not provide. The Red Cross doctor and nurse have ever been ready to relieve suffering when disasters of tornado and flood were visited upon the nation.

"The entire organization is based on the idea of service, and it is because of the unusual efficiency with which this service is dispensed that the nation, in fact the whole world, honors the symbol of the Red Cross."

Procrastination is a habit indulged in by many good people. They simply delay from day to day, doing that which they intend, or think they will do.

No personal solicitations for membership in the Red Cross will be made this year. But that is no excuse for failure to subscribe, nor does it relieve anyone of the obligation to contribute one dollar to this very commendable cause.

Cheeks can be mailed to or subscriptions left with the chairman of the auxiliary chapter, in each of the townships, or with Miss Nora Sleeth, treasurer, recorder's office, Rushville.

The roll call continues until November 29, and it is to be hoped that this opportunity to enroll will not be permitted to pass without a more generous response than has been made since the opening of the campaign.

ADDITIONAL STATE HIGHWAY PAVEMENT OPEN TO TRAFFIC

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 24.—Additional pavement in this year's construction program is now open to traffic, removal of a few detours where construction was in progress, and establishment of other detours where construction will continue until building operations must close because of winter weather severity, are the principal changes in state road conditions for the week of November 25-December 1, John D. Williams, state highway director, announces in the commission's traffic bulletin issued today.

He points out that five miles of new pavement is now open on State Road 5 between Greenville and New Albany, and cautions the public to drive carefully past workmen between Greenville and Palmyra. State Road 15 is to be closed next week from point 3-miles south of Knox to 2-miles south of Knox, and at the north edge of Laporte to permit construction.

With approximately 160-miles of pavement completed this year, and confronted with the task of building about 400-miles next year, various departments of the state roads body must exert every effort to get the 1924 program under way, Mr. Williams says. That state road building, maintenance of non-rigid types, and the work of making all state controlled roads all-season highways is appreciated by the motoring public, is attested by numerous letters reaching the commission from individuals who use the road constantly. "The best investment Indiana ever made," writes a northern Indiana business man whose products go to all parts of the state via motor trucks. A farmer and fruit raiser of southern Indiana, far from a railroad, who now has new markets because of state roads in his neighborhood, claims "they mean future prosperity and create an entirely new era for me."

Conditions of state roads are set forth in the bulletin as follows:

No. 1—Construction from Carmel to 9-miles south of Kokomo with local traffic using sections of completed pavement. Thru traffic advised to avoid construction and if going north from Indianapolis, take No. 15. Detour from Lakeville to South Bend on hard surface road 3-miles east, thence on pavement north to city. ORGANIZATION TO BE NATION-WIDE

Harding Memorial Association, Recently Incorporated, Has Opened Headquarters in Washington

TO OBSERVE HARDING WEEK

To Commemorate Life of Mr. Harding as President And Citizen Week of December 9-16

Washington, Nov. 24—The Harding Memorial Association, recently incorporated under the laws of Ohio for the purpose of providing a suitable depository for the remains of the late President and to perpetuate his homestead at Marion, Ohio, as a shrine for housing the mementos of his long public service, has opened National Headquarters at 1414 F. Street, N. W., and is perfecting a nation-wide organization for carrying out its plan.

Announcement was made today that Harding Memorial Week will be observed throughout the country from December 9th to 16th. During this period exercises and services of many kinds will be held commemorative of Mr. Harding's life as President and citizen. The children are to have a special chance to participate because of the place they held in the late President's affection. During this memorial week those who so desire will have opportunity to become associate members of the Association.

President Coolidge heads the Association's board of Trustees. Other members are: Secretary of State Charles E. Hughes, Secretary of the Treasury Andrew W. Mellon, Secretary of War John W. Weeks, Attorney General Harry M. Daugherty, Postmaster General Harry S. New, Secretary of the Navy Edwin Denby, Secretary of the Interior Hubert Work, Secretary of Agriculture Henry C. Wallace, Secretary of Commerce Herbert Hoover, Secretary of Labor James J. Davis, Governor of the Federal Reserve Board D. R. Crissinger, Senator Joseph S. Frelinghuysen, Gen. Charles E. Sawyer, Gen. Charles G. Dawes, E. B. McLean, John Barton Payne, Fred W. Upham, John Hays Hammond, George B. Christian, Jr., Hoke Donithen and J. F. Prendergast.

Senator Frelinghuysen is acting president of the Association; John Hays Hammond, first vice-president; John Barton Payne, second vice-president; George B. Christian, Jr., secretary; and Secretary Mellon, treasurer.

The Association has in mind a modest but appropriate memorial for the late President in his home town of Marion. The exact site is to be selected by a committee which will include Mrs. Harding. Sufficient funds will be provided as an endowment for its perpetual care and upkeep.

A second form of the memorial will be the permanent endowment of the Harding home on Mt. Vernon Avenue, Marion; the front porch of which became internationally famous in the campaign that preceded Mr. Harding's election to the presidency in 1920. Fully one-quarter of a million people visited there during that period and since his death in San Francisco on August 2nd, there have been approximately thirty thousand visitors.

The popular interest in the house convinced the Association's Directors that it was the Harding shrine of America and should become part of the memorial. It will probably be necessary to erect on the property a small fireproof structure to house the vast number of Harding mementos that have been assembled since his death.

The home, it is believed, will continue the objective of pilgrimages for those to whom Mr. Harding's kindness and human sympathy so greatly appealed.

The executive committee also contemplates the establishment of a Chair of Diplomacy and Functions of Government in some leading university.

This was one of the cherished ideals of the late President. He often spoke to intimate friends of the need of special training for our representatives in foreign countries.

Shortly before his death, in reviewing the achievements of his administration, President Harding said nothing had given him more satisfaction than the coordination and greater efficiency which he had been able to bring about in the various government departments. It is proposed to include special instruction for executives of the Government in the Chair of Diplomacy and Functions of Government.

The plan for associate members which has been approved by the executive committee, would automatically make every person who contributed to the Harding Memorial fund a member. Certificates of membership are now being prepared. They will be handsomely engraved, bear the name of the donor and will be suitable for framing. Certificates issued to those who helped build memorials to President McKinley and

Garfield are now hanging on walls of many homes throughout the country.

Although President Harding was a member of more than a score of fraternal societies, the executive committee requests that these organizations do not join the movement as organizations, whether National, State or local chapter. Membership of individual persons, and as many as possible, is the idea they have in mind. The fraternal societies, it is anticipated, will be represented 100 percent, in nearly every instance and in such cases a special certificate will probably go to these organizations.

Frankfort—Capt. D. N. Estell, instructor in the 151st Infantry, Indiana National Guard, who has been stationed in Shelbyville for fifteen months, has been ordered to Frankfort. He will instruct companies here.

TASTE AND SEE—O taste and see that the Lord is good.—Psalms 34: 8.

Wages and Living Costs

The American working man is better off today than ever before. Measured by purchasing power wages are higher than in the months of so-called "peak" wages in 1920.

The National Industrial Conference Board reports that the wage situation reflects at present the higher level for real earnings as weighted with what these earnings will buy than at any time since the war, not excepting the peak of 1920. Cost of living in July of this year, which is the latest time when comprehensive figures are available, was 61.9% above the 1914 level. This was a decline of 20.8+ from the peak of high prices in July 1920. Most noteworthy were the increases in rents throughout the country, averaging 75% higher than in 1914 and comparing with the former peak of 71% in spring of 1921.

Since March, 1922, up to July, 1923, there has been a gradual rise in the cost of living aggregating 4.7%. Of this increase 1.7% occurred since March of this year.

Average cost of clothing increased 1% since March of this year. In March, 1920, the clothing peak was 17.7% above the pre-war average. Since then they have declined 39%. There has, however, been a slight increase since March of this year, averaging .8 of 1% for the average families' clothes. The net increase in the family clothing bill is now 70% more than in 1914.

Comparing living costs with wages and hours of employment, the board finds that wages now have a higher purchasing power than in 1920, when they were supposed to be highest. During first half of 1923 increased pay and the higher level of hours worked resulted in substantially increased earnings.

Tax-Exempt Securities

The next session of congress should take up the question of tax-exempt securities. The congress will take up this question if it desires to be as fair to the man of small means and the poor man as it is to men of millions.

When the government wants to borrow money it issues bonds that are exempt from taxation. These bonds usually bear around 4 percent interest.

Millionaires buy up these bonds in large quantities because they are non-taxable. They are more profitable to men of swollen incomes than higher interest bonds that are taxable, because the surtax would more than eat up the difference.

The man of modest means can not afford to buy them because the interest rate is too low, and he has no surtax that he wants to cheat.

If men of great wealth were required to buy the same bonds the poor man buys, and at the same rate of taxation plus the surtaxes, hundreds of millions of dollars would be added to the government treasury, and this in turn would justify a general reduction of taxation without inflicting an injustice upon any class.

Local Taxes Greatest Burden

We now find that the plight of the wheat farmers of the Northwest is due as much if not more to the extravagance of local governments as to any other cause. Members of the War Finance Corporation have recently returned from an inspection trip to that section, and report that, "The borrowings of state, county, and municipal agencies have been stimulated to such an extent that the aggregate interest, and therefore the aggregate taxes have increased to a point where they represent a serious burden." Those states are made up of farming communities, and that excessive tax burden is falling directly on the farmers. While the national administration has reduced taxes, and is cutting expenditures preparatory to further reductions, local governments are borrowing more money for projects that could easily wait. What the federal government is saving the taxpayers the state and county governments are taking from them, in most instances.

I claim mus-rats have got it all over men in more ways than one. Mus-rats have all got sense enough to take to the tall an' wicket woods th' instant a trapper appears in th' offing, but men'll hang around th' trapper an' even hand him all sorts o' hints as to what sort of trap they prefer; yes, they'll even go so far as to help in choosin' their fav'rite bait!

Th' open season for trappin' mus-rats is only a few months in th' year, but there's no closed season for men. They're fair game for anybody, any time, any where, if he can rig up a trap. Some trappers have found out that there ain't much profit in trappin' mus-rats, th' big end o' th' money bein' in makin' th' pelts into coats, dyin' 'em th' right color an' callin' 'em 'seal'—an' o' course th' trapper don't get in on that. So a lot o' 'em have turned their talents to trappin' men. They rig up a nice, innocent-lookin' trap, give it a respectable soundin' name, like, frinstance, 'development company' (whatever's bein' developed bein' located either way off somewhere or in th' trapper's imagination); they let a lot o' books in on th' ground floor, hook 'em for all th' loose change they can rake an' scrape an' then they sudden like find that they got business that nobody but them knows where.

Mus-rat trappers are used to killin' their game b'fore they skin it—they're too tender-hearted to treat it like th' trappers o' men do, skin it an' then turn it loose!

Ask Him Something Easy

"Is Ben Caldwell around the court house?" came a voice over the telephone in the city treasurer's office.

"Yes, he's up on the flag pole on the court house tower," replied Earl Conway, the city treasurer.

Excess Baggage

The day before Jerome Caron, Rushville young man, was wounded during the world war, he was on detail and was charged with the responsibility of taking up a supply of chewing and smoking tobacco to the front line trenches for the boys who might want a "smoke" or a "chaw".

He loaded himself up with fifty packages of Bull Durham and three or four slabs of chewing tobacco. Every pocket he possessed was crammed full of tobacco. He never had an opportunity to pass out the tobacco before the "zero hour" came and he went over that morning all stuffed with tobacco.

When he was shot in the hip and taken back to the first relief hospital, the attendants couldn't understand why he happened to be trying to make a tobacco supply station out of himself.

Editor's Odlips Near Prophecy

Prophecy is usually supposed to be a solemn occupation, and the prophet a tall haggard man with a distant gaze and a long white beard. As a matter of fact, however, the real prophet often has a flow of facetious humor through his pen and does his predicting with a smile on his face. For instance, here is an editorial by the famous Samuel Bowles, printed in his Springfield Republican on February 15, 1877, just after Alexander Graham Bell had delivered his first lecture on the Telephone at Salem, Massachusetts.

"Prof. Bell, the accomplished teacher of Visible Speech, has been experimenting, for a year or two, on a method of making speech audible, through the telephone, at a distance of many miles, and has had of late much success in this. On Monday night he placed one of his instruments in Salem and another in Boston and was able to transmit words and tones back and forth and even to send applause by telegraph. The instrument used is termed by him the 'telephone'—transmission being by sound and not by writing, as in the common method. Important practical results may come from this invention, which Prof. Bell and his associate, Mr. Watson, are perfecting for general use. But some of the possibilities of it are rather startling.

A stump-speaker, by this method, could perhaps be heard, on the same day in all the cities and villages of the United States, so that a half-dozen campaign speakers would be enough for the new presidential election, in case neither Tilden nor Hayes is declared president before the 4th of March. Again, by an instrument skillfully arranged, all the music of a prima-donna could be distributed over the country while she was singing thus popularizing good music to an extent as yet unknown. The metropolitan newspapers, could employ persons to read their articles to subscribers in distant parts, so that the expense of printing and mailing copies would be no longer necessary. By a judicious distribution of instruments a whole parish might hear its minister preach on a stormy Sunday without leaving his study. Infinite are the uses to which the new invention could be put. Prof. Bell, the inventor, though a resident of Massachusetts, is an Englishman or Scotchman by birth and his father is the inventor of Visible Speech, by which the teaching of the deaf has been much promoted. There are some obstacles in the way of transmitting sound for long distances by the telephone, but he is confident these can be overcome, until it is made as available as the ordinary telegraph. But Thoreau had objections even to that. 'As if the main object,' said he, 'were to talk fast and not talk sensibly. We are eager to tunnel under the Atlantic, and bring the old world some weeks nearer the new; but perchance the first news that will leak through into the broad flapping American ear will be that the Princess Adelaide has the whooping cough.' And now, by Prof. Bell's invention, we can even hear her whoop. Wonderful are the achievements of science, by which the filing of a saw or the fluting of an amateur may be heard round the world like the morning drum-beat of the British army or the shot fired at Concord Bridge."

It was by the narrowest kind of a margin that Judge Will M. Sparks of Rushville escaped instant death of painful and serious injuries Tuesday morning in the Henry circuit court room, says the New Castle Courier, when the plastering directly above the judge's bench fell from the ceiling. Judge Sparks was sitting at the bench completing some notes. Preparations were being made for the exercises of the corn show and thinking to escape confusion, he stepped from the bench to go into Judge Jackson's office. He had hardly left the bench when the plastering fell.

Louisiana Lady Says She Has "Worse or Found Anything Better Than Cardui for a Run-Down Condition."

Morgan City, La.—"It would be hard for me to tell how much benefit I have derived from the use of Cardui," said Mrs. I. G. Bowman, of 1349 Front Street, this city.

"I was so run-down in health I could hardly go. I was thin. I had no appetite. Could not rest or sleep well. I was so weak, and so very nervous, I was no pleasure to myself.

"I suffered some pain, but the worst of my trouble was from being so weak and easy to get tired and out of heart.

"This nervous condition was worse than pain.

"Some one told me of Cardui, and I decided to use it.

"After using a few bottles, I regained my strength. I wasn't so nervous, and began to eat and sleep, and grew stronger and was soon well.

"I have never found anything better for a run-down condition."

If you suffer as this Louisiana lady did, you, too, should find Cardui helpful for your troubles.

Spiceland Threatens Few Times With Lucky Shots, But Each Time is Headed Off

The Rushville high school basketball quintets scored a couple of victories Friday night over the Spiceland Academy teams in that place, when the varsity team won out, 38 to 25, and the second team won their game, 31 to 20.

Neither team experienced much difficulty in registering victories over their opponents, although each game was fast and interesting and Spiceland took spurts as frequent intervals that might have caused concern if they had kept the pace.

One of the features of the main event of the evening was the good guarding of the Rushville team, which did not allow Spiceland to work their ball near the goal and the Academy team resorted to long shots that came within a few points in the last half of tying the count.

The first half saw Rushville in the lead 17 to 10. Spiceland drew the first points soon after the game started when Catt, their center, dropped in a goal from the field. McNamara soon after was given a chance to score one point on Catt's foul, but he missed the chance, and when Hilligoss broke through from under the basket, he tied the score with his field goal.

The teams fought back and forth over the floor during the next two minutes, and when Comella took a long shot from the back guard position, the ball looped through, giving the locals 4, and Spiceland 2. Catt, the center for Spiceland, was again responsible for evening the count, and he caged another field goal for his team.

McNamara and Snoddy scored in rapid succession for the Lions, and the locals were setting a pace that was beginning to tell on the Academy team. Coffin fouled and Snoddy made good one of the two chances at the basket, which gave Rushville 9, and Spiceland was following with 4.

Then Franklin, the back guard of the Spiceland team, broke the ice with two long shots from his position, and in less than a minute these two shots had brought his team within one point, of tying, 9 to 8.

McNamara and Snoddy soon had Rushville back in the lead again when they counted baskets. Snoddy converted one more point out of two attempts at a foul committed by Carr, and soon afterwards Carr repeated a foul, and Snoddy again made good on one of the chances, which gave Rushville 15 and Spiceland 5.

At this stage in the game Walker scored a goal, although the referee

Carthage Triumphs Over Milroy in
Fast Game, 21 to 20

Carthage triumphed over Milroy last night on the floor in Milroy, by the close count of 21 to 20. The game was close at all stages with first one team in the lead and then the other, and the final outcome was in doubt until the very last ball had a chance to sail through the air.

In the curtain raiser the Milroy seconds won from the Carthage seconds, 10 to 6, and the Milroy girls beat the Center girls, 41 to 10.

maintained that it was illegal, after he had been told that the scorer had blown his whistle for a substitution. The rule book says that the scorer's whistle cannot stop a game, only when the ball is dead.

Catt scored for Spiceland and McNamara matched the goal for Rushville with a long shot that was in the air when the shot sounded at the end of the first half, making the score 17 to 10.

In the start of the second period, Walker scored on a field goal, and Coffin, forward for Spiceland, found the basketball for two points. Catt fouled and McNamara added the one point chance when he made the goal, that gave Rushville 20 and the Academy 12.

Snoddy snagged a goal from the side line and the locals called time for substitutions, with Warth going in for Snoddy and Newbold for Walker. Warth registered a nice basket from the side that doubled the count on Spiceland, 24 to 12, and when Newbold tipped one in, it helped shove the game on ice further, and he soon repeated with another shot, putting Rushville at 28 and the home team trailing with 12.

The last half had progressed ten minutes, and at this stage of the game Spiceland took a running streak of luck on long shots from near the impossible position of back guard and from deep center. With baskets by these long shots, Spiceland was soon within striking distance, and was following, 28 to 23, when Rushville called time and the regular line-up went back in after a refreshing rest.

Rushville Spiceland Game Gally 2
Spiceland, however, was doomed to defeat as the Lions soon began to roll the ball through again, and they marked the score up to 38, before Spiceland had had a chance to score from their 23 point start, and before the game ended Carr for Spiceland dropped in the closing goal, that ended the contest, 38 to 25.

The line-up and summary:
Rushville 38 Spiceland 25
Snoddy F Carr
Hilligoss F Coffin
Walker C Catt
McNamara G Henry
Comella G Franklin
Substitutions, Spiceland, Fausset, Sorrell, Rushville, Newbold, Warth, Sherman. Field goals, Snoddy 4, Hilligoss 2, Walker 2, Newbold 2, McNamara 4, Comella 2, Warth, Carr, 3, Coffin, Catt 5, Henry, Franklin 2.
Foul goals, Catt, Snoddy 3, McNamara. Referee Carmichael.

Colts Win Their Game

The R. I. S. second team did not have much trouble in downing the Spiceland seconds, 31 to 20, and after the first ten minutes of play the local team settled down and soon had things in their favor.

The two teams matched goals early in the game, and each team made several good shots, and displayed fast team work. When the first half ended the Colts were on the long end of a 14 to 9 count, and in the last half, they outplayed their opponents and showed a better eye for the basket.

The line-up and summary:

FAIRVIEW AT MORRISTOWN

The Fairview A. C. basket five will journey over to Morristown tonight for a game, and on Tuesday night the Greensburg Y. M. C. A. team plays at Fairview. The Greensburg team will have the same line-up that defeated the Rush county coaches Thursday night, and Fairview will put forth a big effort to down them.

HITTIN' 'EM AND MISSIN' 'EM

Well, Markin' 'em up, we did the trick last night over your old rivals of Spiceland, and we are terribly sorry but we were figuring on doing the same thing with Newcastle next Friday night.

Milroy next, gang! Don't be over-confident, they held Carthage last night to a close score, 21 to 20, and Carthage is one of the main contenders for a county berth.

SO FAR AS WE KNOW, THE COLTS ARE THE ONLY TEAM IN THE COUNTY WITH A PERFECT RECORD.

Catt, star center on the Spiceland team, is every thing that his name implies! He's a cat's ankle, we'd say.

Another Chance to Show Us Here

Spiceland was crippled last night, so they say, on account of two of their players being out of the game. Well, Spiceland can have another chance at us, when they come here.

MISS HENLEY AND HER BAND

Besides a big gang of rooters, there were two bands on hand last night to help things along. Susie's band was there, and also the co-ed band of the academy. It is directed by Miss Henley of Carthage, and we're hoping that they bring the band along with 'em when they come to Rushville February 8.

SHELBY DROPS AGAIN

Shelbyville is lost without Hodge. The score last night was Franklin 31 Shelbyville 28.

FAIRVIEW PUTS UP BATTLE

Defeats Everton Friday Night in Hot Contest, 26 to 18

The Fairview high school team played a wonderful game Friday night on their home floor, when they defeated the Everton team, 26 to 18. Everton was looked upon as the best team in the county, except Connersville, and the game last night put Fairview away out in front. The first half ended 12 to 10 in favor of Everton, and Fairview exerted every effort in the last half to win.

Hackleman was the star point getter for the winners. In the curtain raiser, the Fairview girls won a close game from the Orange girls, 14 to 13, and the game was not decided until the very end.

HERE WAS A THRILLER

Connersville had tough-timedowning Hagerstown 29 to 28, and it required a five minute extra period. Hagerstown was in the lead 15 to 8 at the end of the first half, but Connersville did what Rushville did, and came back strong in the last half. The score was tied at 25 when the game ended, and in the five minute period, Connersville scored 4 points and Hagerstown 3.

Got His Money Back
Last Night

Coach Case of Frankfort, who was fined $15 for speeding last Sunday night at Lebanon, got his money back last night, when Frankfort defeated Lebanon 53 to 7.

HIT ROCKS AGAIN

Newcastle hit the snags again. Hartford City turned the trick, 33 to 14. Look out for the Lions next week, Newcastle.

Milroy and Carthage staged a wonderful game, and as a matter of fact, Carthage didn't expect so much trouble.

Everton, which was doped to be the best team in Fayette county, outside of Connersville, found out differently last night. Fairview showed 'em 26 to 18.

Gings hasn't even a barn to play in, and so far this season they haven't had a chance to rent a gymnasium for a game. They open Wednesday at Fairview.

Hot Fight

This shows Kid Norfolk and Battling Siki in their fight at Madison Square Garden, New York. The battle lasted the full 15 rounds. Siki made his American debut and was rather roughly treated, though he made a game come-back in last round. Two thousand persons saw the fight.

Lafayette—Ruth Milburn, 3, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Milburn, miraculously escaped death when she fell from the third story window onto a concrete walk twenty-five feet below. There were bruises on her body, but no other signs of serious injury were apparent.

New York University girls are going to show all big eastern colleges a thing or two about basketball. They've arranged games with the co-eds of leading institutions. This shows Maybelle Tabor, forward, and one of the stars of the N. Y. U. team.

AUSTRIAN EXCHANGE ON DOWNWARD GRADE

Speculators in German Money, Through Austrian Banks, Seem Doomed to Lose Money

INTEREST IS REMOVED

Warsaw, Ind., Nov. 21—Speculators in foreign exchange who lost heavily in the collapse of the German mark and who have been anticipating some recourse through the medium of the Austrian kronen because of the fact that Austrian exchange has remained stationary for months, may be doomed to disappointment, letters now being received by local speculators from Vienna banks would seem to indicate.

The Austrian banks are now, for the first time following in the steps of German banks which soon after there was an indication of the forthcoming complete crash of the mark wrote American investors that interest on deposits below a certain amount would cease on a certain date.

Depositors are now receiving letters from Austrian banks, notifying them that, effective immediately, deposits under 500,000 kronen will not draw interest. Interest in the sum of 7 percent will be paid on deposits of 500,000 kronen, or more, while 8 percent will be paid on time deposits of 1,000,000 or more.

The change it was said, was necessitated by the depreciation of the Austrian currency and the resultant rising working expenses of the financial institutions.

Tipton—Tipton county citizens expect to organize a unit of the Indiana Taxpayers association soon.

MRS. COFFMAN
ILL SEVEN YEARS

Saved from an Operation by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Sidell, Ill.—"I was a nervous wreck. I was suffering from a pain in my left side, which was almost unbearable, and I could not even let the bed clothing rest on my body at night. I had been sick for seven years, but not so bad until the last eighteen months, and had become so run-down that I cared for nobody, and would rather have died than live. I couldn't do my work without help, and the doctors told me that an operation was all there was left. I would not consent to that, so my husband brought me a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and begged me to take it. I have taken fourteen bottles of it, and I feel ten years younger. Life is full of hope. I do all my housework and had a large garden this year. I never will be without the Vegetable Compound in the house, and when my two little girls reach womanhood I intend to teach them to take it. I am never too busy to tell some suffering sister of my help, and you can use my name and letter to spread the good news of Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine."

A Hard Winter For Boxers

New York, Nov. 24—With Jack Dempsey and Benny Leonard packed away for the winter, big boxing will have a lean season until the next outdoor boom gets booming next summer—if it does have another boom.

It has been pointed out frequently this fall that the boxers who are passing up good purses for indoor fights this winter to get a big shot outside next summer may be making a serious mistake.

Disregarding the possibility, rather remote, that boxing might be knocked out legally, there are good reasons to believe that there will not be as many places in which to stage outdoor bouts as there were around New York last summer.

It would be no surprise to see the major leagues, in the annual winter meetings, close the doors of their ball parks to boxing. The reasons have been thoroughly covered in previous discussions.

Other reasons to believe that ball park boxing will get a smacking from another quarter were gathered recently when William J. McCormick, the new boss of the commission, told the champions and their managers that it was not at all impossible that the commission would limit the admission price to bouts in ball parks to $5 a head.

This would be a sure knock-out blow.

It is generally agreed on all sides that ball parks are anything but proper places in which to hold big championship contests.

Because timid champions are killing most of the lighter class, the lightweight and heavyweight divisions are the only ones promising any interesting activity in the near future and nothing is in prospect this winter for Dempsey or Leonard.

The heavyweight champion cannot work inside and get the cash he demands, and Leonard feels that he is took big for anything but an outdoor fight.

Leonard was booked for a fight in Tijuana the first of the year, but Jimmy Coffroth, the promoter, has been unable to get a permit from the Mexican government up to the present time and the bout seems doubtful.

Several good heavyweight bouts might be arranged among the contenders, but they all have the outdoor fever and feel that they would be making a business mistake in signing for an indoor fight.

Joe Lynch and Mickey Walker are killing interest in the bantamweight and welterweight classes by refusing to defend their titles. Lynch is losing all his friends because it is apparent that he is afraid to risk his life.

What This Buffalo Physician
Has Done For Humanity

The picture which appears here of Dr. Pierce of Buffalo, N. Y., was taken in 1910. As a young man Dr. Pierce practiced medicine in Pennsylvania and was known far and wide for his great success in alleviating disease. He early moved to Buffalo and put up in ready-to-use form, his Golden Medical Discovery, the well-known tonic for the blood. This strength-builder is made from a formula which Dr. Pierce found most effective in diseases of the blood. It contains no alcohol and is an extract of native roots with the ingredients plainly stated on the wrapper. Good red blood, vim, vigor and vitality are sure to follow if you take this Alternative Extract. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery clears away pimples and annoying eruptions and tends to keep the complexion fresh and clear. This Discovery corrects the disordered conditions in a sick stomach, aids digestion, acts as a tonic and purifies the blood. Write Dr. Pierce's Invalids Hotel in Buffalo, N. The class is studying Art this year and the subject for Friday was "Early Christian and Byzantine Periods". Talks were given as follows: "Symbols drawn from the Hebrews," Mrs. Tittsworth; "Symbols drawn from the Greeks and Geometry," Mrs. Fred Arbuckle; "Reasons for the use of Symbolism," Mrs. Frank Schriebe; "Constantinople in Politics and Art" and "Place and Material of Byzantine and Art," Mrs. Roy Harrold; "Mosaics of the Church of St. Apollinaris," and "Faults of Byzantine Art," Mrs. Charles Fischer. Guest day was observed Friday afternoon by the members of The Advance Literary Club at the home of Mrs. Manley Pearce in North Main street. The home was prettily decorated for the occasion in the club colors of lavender and gold. Beautiful bouquets of chrysanthemums, and French baskets filled with the same flowers and tied with lavender tulle, carried out the appointments in the club colors. Fifty-four guests were entertained during the afternoon.

Two entertainers from Indianapolis, Mrs. W. D. Long and Mrs. Edwards, presented a reverie entitled "On a Southern Porch," which was splendidly given. A miniature porch was constructed in the corner of the living room and was adorned with honeysuckle and corn flowers, which added to the realism of the little playlet. Mrs. Edwards took the part of a southern lady, who had returned to her former home in the South, after living in the North for several years. While sitting on the "old southern porch" she reviews in her mind her childhood days and the songs she used to sing, and while doing so Mrs. Long sings the old southern melodies and gave appropriate readings in a very charming manner. Others on the program were Miss Florin Grenier, soloist, and her accompanist, Miss Brenda Kinsinger.

As the closing feature of the afternoon's entertainment, dainty refreshments were served, the predominant color scheme being carried out in the collation.

"Perhaps nothing in the whole field of anti-tuberculosis work is more important than the actual study of cases at close range," said Dr. Amos today. "While the clinic facilities of the State Association now are inadequate, they are gradually bearing much fruit in an educational way throughout the state. Wherever a clinic is held, the interest of citizens of that community is immediately centered on tuberculosis problems and from then on the introduction of the whole program of right living, which has gone far to defeat the 'White Plague' in Indiana, is made easier."

Lace for Afternoon Wear

Sketched here are two frocks which show just how lovely lace may be when it goes out to afternoon tea. Black lace is the whole material of one frock made over a colored silk slip. Lace forms the yoke and pleated panels of another. Brown lace and brown silk are used for the third model. The laces are all-over patterns, Spanish or Chantilly, soft and silky in texture. They are used in all colors though black and brown are most popular.

SHOTS FIRED IN NIGHT

Considerable shooting of revolvers Friday night in various portions of the city was being investigated today by the police officers. The police were unable to explain the shooting. The shot rang out in different parts of the city, at almost every hour during the night and early morning, according to reports.

Washington—Fire proved a valuable aid to officers here. When a house burned down several barrels of burning mash were discovered. The operator of the place was arrested.

Greensburg—The Greensburg Methodist church will celebrate the 98th birthday of its oldest member, the Rev. James B. Lathrop. He is expected to be present at the special service.

Replete With Thrills
 "Texas", Franklyn Farnum's latest feature, a western comedy-drama now showing at the Mystic theatre today is a story of the railroad's invasion of the west in the early days.
 The little town of Morenon had enjoyed the peaceful pursuits of a natural existence until capital decided to bridge the gap between the East and West and it so happened the survey for their railroad ran through the town. Right-of-way purchases were made wherever necessary with the exception of the O. Y. Ranch owned by Texas, and which he refused to sell. His refusal was due to the enmity between himself and Crandall, the purchasing agent for the road. This enmity was caused by Texas' winning the friendship and love of the President's daughter and by Crandall's crooked dealings to gain possession of the ranch to further his own gain.
 The story is replete with thrills, mystery, comedy situations, drama, and a red-blooded, lie-man climax that finishes up with a bang. The roles are superbly cast, each character being chosen for his or her fitness to the part, and Director Bertram has secured a marvelous interpretation of this virile, western story. Texas is one of the really worth-while western pictures of the year.

"Environment Well Received"
 Alice Lake and Milton Sills, two accomplished players of the screen who have proven their right to stardom through exceptional acting in scores of pictures, are the featured players in "Environment," a new Irving Cummings production for Principal Pictures, which was well received on its premier presentation at the Princess Theatre Friday. It is at the Princess again today.

seutation at the Princess Theatre Friday. It is at the Princess again today.

"Environment" was written by Harvey Gates, an experienced writer for the silent drama, an author thoroughly versed with his theme—that of a crook's redemption, and the picture is characterized by tense scenes, excellent acting and beautiful photography.

The story is one that holds the attention from beginning to end without resorting to impossible or false situations. This production, by Mr. Cummings, is a worthy addition to his large list of famous pictures. "Environment" is a drama of the city's underworld and the healthy atmosphere of the open country. The locale of the story is Chicago and a small community some miles distant. The action is tense, filled with suspense, offers strong conflict and sharp contacts, is rich in local color and background and moves with a vigor which will keep the spectator at strict attention throughout its unfoldment.

In addition, there is a Mack Sennett comedy, "One Cylinder Love," and novelty instrumental musical numbers by Diana and Galvin.

"Habit" at The Castle
 Louis B. Mayer's screen triumph

"Habit" now showing at the Castle Theatre was well liked by those that saw it last night. It is a First National Production with Mildred Harris and a supreme supporting cast, including Ethel Terry, William Lawrence, Walter McGrade and others as well live up to the standard that First National Pictures have established. Habit has two costly features which lift it beyond the ken of the ordinary produced drama even on the lavish scale of production practiced today. The first is a railroad wreck in which two locomotives are seen in a head-on collision. The next instant they, and the train that they pull are scrapped. One of the most thrilling train wrecks ever filmed. The second is the most expensive display of furs and furbelows ever shown on the screen. Throughout the whole show the two forces, "habit" and "will-power," which are impersonated by real characters on the screen, wage a continuous battle for mastery of the lives of the other characters portrayed. "Habit" is a mirror of life that reflects the lives of most of us. The Fox Comedy shown in connection is a scream from beginning to end. "The Unreal News Reel." "Sees all-knows nothing."
